Atheneum Suite Hotel

"A Chic Hotel"

This swank all-suites hotel in the heart of the Greektown area is well known for its exceptional service. It resides in a perfect location for business affairs, near the General Motors headquarters at the Renaissance Center. The Atheneum's lobby is decorated with murals from Greek mythology and the Trojan War. The hotel is surrounded by trendy bistros, clubs and restaurants and one of the trendiest, Fishbone's Rhythm Café, is right on the premises. Visitors choose this spot for the nightlife, and it is also popular for romantic getaways. Families love it because the staff and policies are unusually kid-friendly.

Roberts Riverwalk Hotel

"Historic Riverfront Hotel"

Located right on the Detroit Riverfront, the Roberts Riverwalk Hotel is housed in the historic Stroh River Place. The rooms are all very spacious and have a lot of historical character plus modern amenities like TVs, microwaves and wireless internet. While the hotel is a bit far from the downtown area, they do provide a free shuttle to downtown. The hotel has a 24-hour workout room, conference and banquet facilities and restaurant, complete with a lounge.

The Henry, Autograph Collection

"Upscale Luxury"

The Henry is an upscale hotel that is part of the sophisticated Autograph Collection. This boutique hotel has welcoming modern decor with beautiful contemporary artwork throughout the premises. Guests will love the indoor swimming pool where you can swim even during the cold Michigan winter. You can even take a guided tour of their impressive art collection! The hotel also has an ideal location since it's close to the Fairlane Town Center and the Henry Ford Museum.
