The Well

"Here's To A Good Time"

Along with its good live Raggae, Blues and Alternative Rock music, The Well in Downtown Detroit is appreciated for its friendly service and reasonably priced menu. The bar is a fun place to hangout with a bunch of friends after a long tiring day or simply to people-watch while you nurse a beer on some of their busy days when they get a varied crowd. Game days see a lively atmosphere, with lots of cheering and revelry. With easily accessible parking and great bartenders if you're in the Downtown area, a visit to The Well is a must.

Old Shillelagh

"An Irish Favorite"

A local favorite since 1975, Old Shillelagh acts as a pub, bar, and nightclub on various days throughout the week. This is one of the most liveliest spots in the city and is always bustling with a young crowd. Dance the night away as the DJ spins your favorite number or tap your feet to the live music performances by some of the best artists in the city; these and other interesting events held throughout the week keep the guests entertained. In case you feel hungry after all the dancing, you can devour burgers, sandwiches, appetizers or other offerings on their menu. All in all, you are sure to have a gala time here.

The Bronx Bar

"Low Key Hangout"

Located close to Wayne State University, The Bronx Bar is a favorite place for both students and locals. The atmosphere here is laid back and the service is very friendly. This bar is well-known locally for their bloody marys and Long Island iced teas, as well as their ample beer selection. Traditional bar food is also available - be sure to try the burger and fried okra!
