Olive Anatolian Restaurant

"Assorted World Cuisine"

Olive Anatolian Restaurant is just as it is named. Set on the rooftop of Hotel Sultania, their menu is inspired by olives and the Anatolian cuisine. This is highlighted in their tapas style lunches or creative dinners. Breakfast is a buffet of Turkish and Continental platters. The wrap-a-round setting of the place with floor-to-ceiling glass windows and a beautiful terrace area for alfresco dining is augmented by sunset orange lamp fixtures on the tables, hanging light fixtures and modern furnishing. They even have a separate menu for kids and offer cooking classes to those who want to know more about their cuisine. Reservations are recommended.

Van Kahvalti Evi

"Might Iranian Breakfast"

Inspired by the cuisine of the Van city which is located close to the Iranian border, Van Kahvaltı Evi serves brilliant breakfast meals made with fresh produce. This wooden-decked eatery is charming as it is genius in its preparation of food, and the waitstaff is a cheerful bunch of young'uns. Plan to head here early while on your city sojourn, if you plan to grab a heart breakfast, since this spot tends to attract crowds quick and how. Order sinfully indulgent dishes loaded with cheese, yoghurt, cream and eggs, with a steaming cup of fresh tea.
