Demirören İstiklal

"Entertainment Hub"

İstiklal Caddesi does not fail to make it to shopping itineraries of visitors to Istanbul. A great addition to the world famous street's retail scene is Demirören İstiklal, reminiscent of malls in the west. The historic building Sin-Em Han was the previous occupant of the space. The five-story arcade is home to over 40 stores of international brands and designer labels. Some of the names on floor are GAP, Kipling, Guess and Mothercare featuring trendsetting clothing, accessories and electronics. The complex also houses a 4D theater and several dining alternatives, making it a social hotspot. A walk up the escalators is a great way to marvel at the magnificent architecture and designed dome, while the exterior facades are punctuated by intricate carvings and sculptures.

Kanyon Shopping Mall

"Great Shopping Experience"

Introducing high-end fashion to Turkey's cultural capital is the one-of-a-kind, open-air lifestyle complex called the Kanyon Shopping Mall. It gets its name from its canyon-like shape and is known for its architectural excellence as much as it is for its shopping scene. One of the most modern and futuristic structures standing in northern Istanbul, its uniqueness splendidly punctuates Levent's busy street. The space houses 160 stores, a cutting-edge multiplex and a state-of-art fitness center. Indulge in clothing, accessories and apparel from premium brands and designer labels, both local and international, and a plethora of dining alternatives.

Akmerkez

"Buy the Latest Brands"

One of the trendy shopping centers in Istanbul, Akmerkez is home to over 250 stores. It should come as no surprise that it is always packed with people. Department stores, supermarkets, designer brands, bookstores and home design stores are just a few examples of the selection on offer. The highlight of the mall is the large food court offering a range of different cuisines. Flanked by multi-cuisine restaurants and cafes, this shopping center is definitely a one-stop-shop.
