Tobacco Road Sports Café

"Sports and Beer"

Tobacco Road Sports Café in Durham brings together a tradition of basketball and good food to the table. The individual booths make a great place for groups to sit and enjoy the game on one of their 15 flat screen TV sets. Although they are a sports bar, they give a lot of importance to serving amazing food to their patrons. It is fresh and there are also many healthy options. Grab a beer and enjoy your day with delicious food and your buddies.

Players Retreat

"Old-School Retreat"

The Players Retreat has been a Raleigh burger and beer touchstone since 1951, and is the antithesis of the high energy lounges that dominate parts of West Raleigh. The interiors stand out with dark wood, black booths, and a vintage university feel. Locals come to the retreat for the burgers and largest malt scotch selection in North Carolina. Although the Retreat's homespun menu has become time-honored, it now offers a bit of sophistication with a comprehensive wine list.

Overtime Sports Pub

"Sports Country"

Overtime Sports Bar is a great place to catch a burger and a game, and also offers trivia nights, live music, and karaoke. The bar has more than a dozen high definition TVs and serves generous portions of pub food. If watching sports is not your favorite pastime, there is also a game room with arcade games, a pool table, dart boards, and a jukebox. Patrons should note, Overtime fills up quickly on Sundays during football season, and is at heart Pittsburgh Steelers country.
