Edison Beach House

"Overlooking the Gulf"

The Edison Beach House harkens back to a time when the state of Florida ran at a slower pace, when founder Mina Edison could rely on a leisurely Estero Island ease. Every room is perfect for relaxation at this all-suite hotel. Each suite has a kitchenette, laundry facilities and breathtaking views of the Gulf of Mexico. The 24-suites are available in seven floor plans, but spring breakers beware: the hotel only rents the non-smoking suites to those over the age of 26. Nonetheless, it is one of the best places to stay when visiting Fort Myers Beach.

Sanibel Harbour Marriott Resort & Spa

"Luxurious Seaside Sanctuary"

Every aspect of the Sanibel Harbour Marriott Resort & Spa, from the spacious rooms and private fishing pier to the 40,000 square-foot spa & fitness center, is tailored for comfort and luxury. The massive complex features 240-rooms, 70 apart-hotel condominiums and a 107-room inn, plus six pools, 14 whirlpools and a tennis complex that hosted two Davis Cup tournaments. Also on site, guests find restaurants, golf, cruises - the list goes on. The only thing missing is the perfect beach. Of course, the price matches the luxury, and most activities cost extra.
