Terra Cotta

"Fashionistas in Savannah"

Terra Cotta opened its doors in 1996, much to the excitement of fashion-lovers throughout Savannah. The boutique prides itself on selling only products that promote the highest standard of living - from chic apparel to elegant home furnishings. Browse their accessories while chatting with one of the cheerful fashionistas who man the counter, browse the collection of adorable heels, or play around with the bright and tantalizing lipsticks on display.

The Paris Market & Brocante

"A Touch of the Exotic in Savannah"

Any lover of colorful bazaars and marketplaces will be delighted by the wares sold at The Paris Market & Brocante. The charming downtown Savannah shop is filled with deliciously scented candles, bedding, and furniture, among other items. Browse through their colorful selections of jewelry, clothing, and textiles, or spend some time sniffing each of the designer candles displayed in a variety of ways throughout the store. Owners Paula and Taras Danyluk want to give visitors a sense of the exotic, which is why you might mistake their shop for a beautiful bazaar located in some far-flung corner of the globe.
