Dunhill Hotel

"Comfortable Elegance"

As Charlotte's only member of Historic Hotels of America, the Dunhill stands out among the new skyscrapers in the urban center of Uptown. This hotel maintains the same elegance and attention to customer service that has made it a popular choice among businessmen and leisure guests since its opening in 1929. It offers 60 rooms, a penthouse, its award-winning hotel restaurant The Monticello, and a range of services from the front desk.

Morehead Inn

"Favorite for Weddings"

Set on an elegant estate in the popular neighborhood of Dilworth, the Morehead Inn has maintained a traditional Southern style and charm. The picturesque gardens and lawns make it an ideal location for private gatherings and has earned it a reputation for wedding services. In addition, it offers a full range of private rooms and suites for overnight guests, all of which are decorated in early 20th century style. The restaurant at the inn serves a wide menu for guests, banquets, and catering alike. Specials are also available for unique packages like "Girls in the City" - a slumber party for friends, complete with fuzzy slippers and cookies!

Duke Mansion

"A Historical Landmark"

Formerly the home of James Buchanan Duke, this mansion has been completely renovated to serve the needs of both business and leisure guests. It is located in the desirable Myers Park neighborhood and surrounded by extensive grounds with fountains and gardens. The staff has a reputation for excellent service and caters to the specific needs of each guest. The Bed & Breakfast can accommodate both small parties and special events of over 300 people, which can be professionally arranged by in-house designers and planners. Since the mansion is an important historical landmark, all of the money from visitors goes into the maintenance of the property to retain the beauty and elegance of the original house.

Matthews Manor Bed & Breakfast

"Home Away From Home"

Those who have Charlotte on their itinerary can avail of these beautiful rooms at this lavish manor. Quiet, calming, yet richly-decorated interiors are fitted with luxuriant bathrooms and large, strategically-placed beds that give off an air of being at home. With just three rooms available, guests get a chance to know each other, or hole-up in a private cocoon, while the attentive staff unobtrusively takes care of your needs. A buffet-style breakfast is served on the porch each morning between 7a and 8:30a, while soft drinks, wine and cheese are proffered in rooms for a quick snack. Though not a place for pets and kids, the dwelling is perfectly suited to couples—wedding services, anniversary packages and romantic specials abound. The place also offers facilities for the very rare business traveler; the corporate package is what you should ask for. If you have the cash for it, you could also rent the whole villa and keep it all to yourself during your stay!
