McNinch House Restaurant

"A Lifetime Experience"

McNinch House Restaurant is truly unique. A Victorian-style house, complete with towers and porches and intricate woodwork, McNinch House transports patrons to another era of simple but high value dining. With booking highly recommended, this one-of-a-kind restaurant is brimming with an understated grace and southern hospitality. McNinch's is not just another fine dining restaurant but an experience in itself. The food is inspired by Southern American and French techniques and prepared with mind-boggling detail to perfection. This beautiful restaurant also hosts & caters private parties and milestone celebrations in their private space. Winner of prestigious wine awards, the spirits selection speaks of exemplary choices of wines, liquor and cocktails.

Bentley's on 27

"Unique Dining Experience"

Stunning panoramic views and world-class service come together on the 27th floor of the Charlotte Plaza Building at Bentley's Restaurant on 27. Executive Chef William Schutz prepares traditional French dishes, created at each table by the use of mobile cooking carts known as gueridons. Both private and corporate events are welcomed as the setting can accommodate both a romantic dinner for two and a wedding reception of over 300. With an extensive wine list and menu, including such entrees as filet mignon and Australian Lobster Tail, Bentley's is ideal for a special night out on the town.

Bonterra Dining & Wine Room

"An Elegant Dining Experience"

Bonterra Dining and Wine Room provides a unique and award-winning culinary experience. Built in the former home of the Dilworth Methodist Episcopal Church South, the renovated restaurant interior maintains much of the original design. Their full dinner menu includes entrees such as Tamarin Glazed Duck Breast and Roulade of Fresh Trout, and the kitchen has a wood-burning brick oven, the likes of which is seldom found in restaurants outside of Northern California. It is an ideal location for an after-work gathering, boasting an extensive wine menu alongside a variety of snacks to sample.
