Caffe Siena Trattoria e Barra

"Charming Pizzeria"

Housed within the Holiday Inn Charlotte, this restaurant-cafe seems to have it all—oven-roasted pizzas, alfresco dining, and even wireless Internet services. The color red is used unsparingly, but it rather complements the dark wooden furniture and the dim lighting. Private dining can turn out to be quite a romantic affair, and you can choose from a menu sporting pizzas, sea-fare, fresh pastas, steak, panini and other Mediterranean items. Catering and valet services are also available.

Mezzanotte

"Authentic Italian Delicacies!"

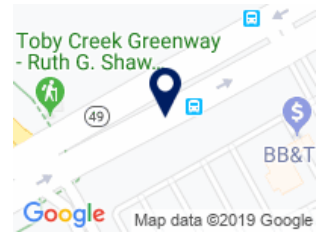

For an Italian dining experience the whole family can enjoy, Myers Park's Mezzanotte is ideal. Those who have become accustomed to Americanized pizza will be in for a treat, as they will be able to sample the popular dish the way the Italians intended. The lunch and dinner menus comprise sandwiches like Polpetta and Bistecca and traditional and baked pasta. The pizzas, starting at USD11.95, are diverse; you must give their signature Mezzanotte, with its Ricotta tomato sauce, Italian sausage, prosciutto and mozzarella a try. The dessert menu comprises treats like the traditional Sicilian cannoli, as well as other Italian confections like tiramisu and gelato. There are also family style meals for up to six people. If you want to ensure that the guests at your next function go away happy, you should definitely consider availing of this restaurant's catering services!
