Smelly Cat Coffeehouse

"Beloved Neighborhood Cafe"

Being such a classically bohemian arts community, NoDa would not be NoDa without a laid-back neighborhood coffee shop. Smelly Cat is it. Cozy and warm, locals file in each day for nourishment. A wide array of coffees and teas are available, as are smoothies, ice cream drinks, pastries, and bagels. Some folks grab some goodies on the run; others pull up a chair and read, write, or chat for a bit.

Smokey Joe's Cafe

"Dive Bar & Entertainment Venue"

No, this place isn't connected to the hit Broadway Smokey Joe's Cafe revue, but it wouldn't be surprising if it was inspired by the pop culture behind it. While this bar and entertainment venue offers superb live music performances and cheap drinks, it does pose as more of a dive bar rather than a sophisticated watering hole. This however has not deterred its patrons from being loyal, and its first-timers from visiting again. Smokey Joe's Cafe usually features blues, Americana, indie, bluegrass, jazz, jam band, country, rock, jazz, folk, funk, and acoustic music performances. And there's also a pool table, an outdoor seating area with a swing, and other past times that make Smokey Joe's Cafe the ideal place to chill out with buddies, or unwind at after a hard day at work.

Cowfish Sushi Burger Bar

"One of a Kind"

What happens when you mix sushi and burgers? Cowfish Sushi Burger Bar serves this interesting combination of Japanese and American cuisines to its adventurous patrons. A good place to experiment with food, it allows diners to mix and match dishes calling it the 'Burgushi'. Try a Deliverance Roll which contains pork wrapped in seaweed and covered with barbecue sauce or sample a Bento Box with a burger-sushi combination. An open mind is all you need as you experience two diverse cultures come together in a memorable gustatory experience.
