Bank of America Stadium

"Home of the Carolina Panthers"

The Bank of America Stadium, known to the fans just as "The Bank," is the cherished home of the NFL Carolina Panthers. Located in uptown Charlotte, the stadium has been of great service to the team since its inauguration in 1996. A fortress for the Panthers and a modern colossus, the stadium quite easily accommodates over 75,000 expectant fans, offering great viewing angles and comfortable seating options to its patrons. Its outer circumference is flanked by six domes that stand near all three entrances of the stadium. In the past, the stadium has hosted sporting events like the Belk Bowl and the ACC Championship Game.

American Legion Memorial Stadium

"Huge Stadium"

Charlotte Memorial Stadium is a mammoth sports venue with a seating capacity of 21,000 spectators inside it. It indeed is a good choice to spend a sunny holiday watching soccer teams in action, sitting there in the open air with your friends. And its not just sports alone that make this venue a real hit in the city—concerts and other shows also make Charlotte Memorial Stadium come alive every year on the Independence Day.

Bojangles' Coliseum

"Multi-Purpose Arena"

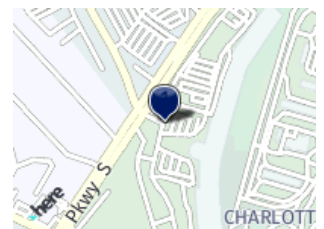

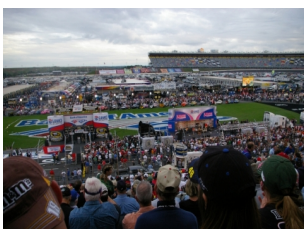

This arena, which opened in 1955, is located in the East Charlotte area. Previously known as Cricket Arena and Independence Arena, the stadium hosts music concerts, magic shows and sport events, and seats 10,500 spectators. An in-house restaurant ensures that you enjoy yourself without feeling low on energy. Parking is available on-site. There is a banquet room accommodating up to 125 people. For further information, check the website or call for details.

Charlotte Motor Speedway

"Exciting Event Speedway"

A 1.5 mile long track located in a Northeastern suburb of Charlotte, this super speedway was the first track to offer night-time racing and full-time residential condominiums by the track. The speedway's nearly year-round calendar of events, including monster truck rallies, auto fairs, dirt track racing and vintage car shows, makes it an irresistible magnet for visitors across the state. This is a good place to take the kids for a smaller event, or a way to soak up Southern sporting culture and excitement during the races. Nearby campgrounds are well-equipped, so you can stay for more than a day if you like.
