Pop's Cafe

"Classic Diner"

Pop's Cafe in Santa Ana is a classic, old school style diner specializing in breakfast and American dishes. From the red vinyl seats to the checkerboard floor, you will definitely know you made the right choice as soon as you step in the door. Once you check out the menu, take your pick from American breakfast classics like biscuits and gravy, eggs Benedict, French toast (grilled or fried) and of course, pancakes. For those who aren't breakfast folk, they also serve classic American lunch dishes like tuna salad, burgers and BLTs.

Watson Drugs & Soda Fountain

"Classic American Diner"

Watson's Drugstore was founded in 1899, making it the oldest ongoing business in the city. Today, Watson's is an old-fashioned soda fountain, with the walls decorated with old advertisements and license plates and a large bar lined with stools and red vinyl seats. The menu is classic Americana, with items like burgers, patty melts, fries and classic breakfasts. Being a soda fountain, diners should not miss out on one of the ice cream sodas or floats to really get the full Watson's experience.

Norm's Restaurant

"Grub Around The Clock"

Norm's Restaurant is one of Orange County's favorite all night diners. The menu is classic American diner grub, as expected, with specialties like the one pound Porterhouse steak, meatloaf and the sometimes dreaded liver and onions. All the breakfast favorites are served around the clock too, so if you're craving Belgian waffles at 3a, you know where to go. Norm's Restaurant has many locations throughout Orange County.
