

"Best Performing Arts in Orange County"

Created by: Cityseeker

 5 Locations Bookmarked

Segerstrom Center for the Arts

"Building a Cultural Tradition"

The center, funded largely by a mega-million dollar endowment from Renée and Henry Segerstrom, was originally inaugurated in 1986, with the first venue Segerstrom Hall as part of what was then the Orange County Performing Arts Center. The latest addition, a community plaza uniting the newer and older venues was built in 2006, and the center renamed the Segerstrom Center for the Arts. The complex has drawn huge audiences for symphony, ballet, and Broadway events. The Segerstrom Center for the Arts, featuring the 2000-seat Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall, 500-seat Samueli Theater, Founders Hall and Segerstrom Hall as well as a variety of educational exhibits and recreation services, continues this tradition of artistic expansion. The halls are well suited to hold symphony performances, as they features state of the art acoustics that can be adjusted for large as well as intimate events. Tours are available on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 10:30a, and offer a great glimpse into the backstage area, as well as notes about the architecture and design.

 +1 714 556 2787

 www.scfta.org/

 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa CA

Irvine Barclay Theater

"Great Performances"

This is a local theater in Irvine that features some great performing arts events. From comedy to drama to opera and ballet, it sponsors an eclectic blend of shows. Many of the shows are national productions and the local shows often feature well-known actors and comedians. You can also hear classical music performances here, from orchestras to opera. Whatever your taste, you will find something to entertain or interest you. It is located adjacent to the UC Irvine campus. Ticket prices vary depending on show, and tickets are available online at the website, over the phone or at the box office.

 by stevendamron

 +1 949 854 4646

 www.thebarclay.org

 info@thebarclay.org

 4242 Campus Drive, Irvine CA

Stage Door Repertory Theatre

"Theatrical Excellence"

This intimate community theater group puts on shows year round, ranging from classics like Les Misérables to contemporary works such as Crazy for Love, a musical revue. Offering subscriptions, patrons receive exclusive benefits such as discount for friends, the best seats in the house and priority in advance ticket purchases. Be sure to visit their website for more information on their upcoming shows or special events.

 by AndyRobertsPhotos

 +1 714 630 7378

 www.stagedoorrep.org/

 nick@stagedoorrep.org

 1045 North Armando Street, Anaheim CA

by Public Domain

The Chance Theater

"Drama, Dance and More"

Founded in 1999, Chance Theater started as a small coffee house and today, is a nationally recognized theater company. More than 100 plays, musicals and premiere have taken place at this theater. From favorite old musicals like 'Assassins' and 'Evita' to 'Biloxi Blues', 'Shakespeare's R & J' and 'The Eight: Reindeer Monologues', Chance has been host to a variety of theater styles and forms. With many awards and achievements attached to its name, this is a perfect choice if you're looking for some quality entertainment in Anaheim.

+1 714 777 3033

www.chancetheater.com

info@chancetheater.com

5552 East La Palma Avenue,
Anaheim Hills, Anaheim CA

by Bobak Ha'Eri

Soka Performing Arts Center

"World Class Entertainment Facility"

This large, 95,000 square foot (8,825 square meter) eco-friendly facility is known as the Soka Performing Arts Center. Located on the Soka University of America campus in Aliso Viejo, this state-of-the-art center features a concert hall and theater both fully equipped with incredible acoustics designed by the same man who did the Walt Disney Hall in Los Angeles and the Suntory Hall in Tokyo. See amazing student performances as well as professional groups year round at this stunning venue.

+1 949 480 4278

www.performingarts.soka.edu/

tickets@soka.edu

1 University Drive, Aliso Viejo
CA

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com