Misty's Restaurant & Lounge

"Chill at Misty's"

Located in the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel Ontario Airport, Misty's caters to a mostly older crowd with live music and superb cocktails. There is a cover charge when there is a live band on stage, but if you are staying at the hotel, entrance is complimentary. Guests can also order some appetizers from the hotel restaurant or a full meal if they so choose. Additionally, there is a strict dress code that is enforced, so no baggy pants or baseball caps.

Tequila Hoppers Bar & Grill

"Fifty Types of Tequila"

Tequila Hoppers Bar & Grill  earns its name by providing gallons of Tequila and tons of beers on tap. The list of tequila presents all three major styles, the silver, añejo and reposado, and each one has such a different flavor profile, you never knew so many variations existed. The kitchen serves pub food like burgers, sandwiches and salads, but most come for the tequila shots and flights. The happy hour is one of the best in the Inland Empire, it starts at 2:30p every weekday and goes on for the next four hours.

That 80's Bar

"Nostalgia for the 20th Century's Eighth Decade"

If you miss the A-Team, Alf, The Police and everything else that exudes 80's nostalgia, then you have found it here. The club/bar is only open from Wednesday to Saturday, but rest assured that there will be plenty of 80's tunes and the owners never charge a cover. On Wednesdays, the bar hosts a karaoke night, while Thursdays and Fridays hold live music and DJs. In the past, the club has featured some old-school 80's bands like the Flock of Seagulls, DramaRama and Berlin.

340 Restaurant & Nightclub

"Downtown Pomona Clubbing"

This LGBT club located in downtown Pomona is one of the most popular clubs in this part of the Inland Empire. Open from Thursday to Sunday, the nightclub features theme nights, strong drinks, an affable staff and the kitchen serves better-than-average club food. 340 is housed within a historic building that dates back to 1913 where the bi-level structure hosts drag queen contests, all male revue as well as dancing and camaraderie all night long. The bar has an impressive list of signature drinks as well as bottle service which includes top shelf vodka, cognac, scotch, gin and tequila.
