Misty's Restaurant & Lounge

"Chill at Misty's"

Located in the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel Ontario Airport, Misty's caters to a mostly older crowd with live music and superb cocktails. There is a cover charge when there is a live band on stage, but if you are staying at the hotel, entrance is complimentary. Guests can also order some appetizers from the hotel restaurant or a full meal if they so choose. Additionally, there is a strict dress code that is enforced, so no baggy pants or baseball caps.

That 80's Bar

"Nostalgia for the 20th Century's Eighth Decade"

If you miss the A-Team, Alf, The Police and everything else that exudes 80's nostalgia, then you have found it here. The club/bar is only open from Wednesday to Saturday, but rest assured that there will be plenty of 80's tunes and the owners never charge a cover. On Wednesdays, the bar hosts a karaoke night, while Thursdays and Fridays hold live music and DJs. In the past, the club has featured some old-school 80's bands like the Flock of Seagulls, DramaRama and Berlin.

Carnaval

"Salsa, Merenge & More"

This Latin inspired club is tucked away in the suburbs of historic downtown Pomona. With over 11,000-square-feet (1021.93-square-meter) of entertainment space, Carnaval hosts live music as well as DJs every weekend and the spacious dance floor allows one to let their hair down till the wee hours of the morning. Most of the music is Latin, which varies from Mexican norteña music to salsa and merengue. Private rooms and bottle service make it one of the most trendiest nightlife destinations of the city.

340 Restaurant & Nightclub

"Downtown Pomona Clubbing"

This LGBT club located in downtown Pomona is one of the most popular clubs in this part of the Inland Empire. Open from Thursday to Sunday, the nightclub features theme nights, strong drinks, an affable staff and the kitchen serves better-than-average club food. 340 is housed within a historic building that dates back to 1913 where the bi-level structure hosts drag queen contests, all male revue as well as dancing and camaraderie all night long. The bar has an impressive list of signature drinks as well as bottle service which includes top shelf vodka, cognac, scotch, gin and tequila.
