Ross Rogers Golf Course

"Perfect Par"

Lush green grass flows over the long fairways and greens at the immaculate golf course in the Texas Panhandle. Amarillo's Ross Rogers Golf Course first opened to the general public in 1940 and has been challenging players ever since. This golfing complex offers a bevy of amenities including a driving range, with a practice area that includes tee and chipping areas. The course plays host to many tournaments and private events throughout the year and is continuously rated Amarillo's most economical course for those on a budget.

Tascosa Golf Club

"Challenging Courses"

Tascosa Golf Club is a private golf course, however you can avail of the link if accompanied by a member. One of the best golf clubs in the area, it features two 18-hole courses and other recreational facilities. Their courses, La Paloma and Tascosa are distinct in their layouts and are a challenging ground for players of all skill levels. La Paloma with its sloping and contoured landscape has huge bunkers while the other course is more flat terrain and has a parkland design. A strict dress code is followed at this club.
