Granville Cafe

This stylish café puts a premium on locally-sourced and sustainable ingredients. The place is wholesome without being staid, a perfect choice for an unpretentious gourmet. Breakfast is popular, with dishes like the power breakfast and carrot hot cakes catering towards the health-conscious who don't want to sacrifice the Los Angeles brunch ritual. Generous cocktail and brew menus round out the offerings along with soup, salad, pizza, and burgers for lunch.

Another Broken Egg

This casual chain breakfast and brunch spot serves classic dishes with artisanal flair. There's a bar with stools, lots of color on the walls, and an interior hen motif. Stepping into the restaurant feels a little like stepping into a French country home. In addition to the breakfast basics, Another Broken Egg serves creative takes on classic dishes. Consider southwestern bean dip, blueberry and goat cheese pancakes, and shrimp and grits. Arrive early or make reservations, and enjoy a savory brunch on the patio.

Corner Cottage

"Best Breakfast Burritos"

This small restaurant is a popular local spot and is known for perhaps the best breakfast burritos in California. Corner Cottage has a wide variety of Californian dishes, including chicken bowls, bacon breakfast burritos, cheeseburgers, and more. Make sure you try some of their salsa as well! Not only is the food amazing, the prices are easy on your wallet. Although well-known, this restaurant is tiny and most people take their food to-go.

Coral Cafe

"Fantastic Local Cafe"

Locals trek to Coral Cafe day and night for the wide selection of inexpensive food. Open 24 hours, it is the perfect for lunch or stopping by after a night at the bars or clubs. The simple layout and sparse decorations may not add to the ambiance, but it creates a mom-and-pop feel. Make sure to order the tortilla soup, topped with a mound of cheese, it's simply one of the best soups in the city. Coral Cafe also has a great breakfast menu.

Bea Bea's

Bea Bea's serves homespun American breakfasts, lunches, and coffee all day. It's a casual and light-filled place with a reputation miles around Burbank for its massive breakfast menu. There are some surprises on a menu full of staid classics. Consider ordering the green tea monster pancakes, Thai tea pancakes, and the Sicilian scramble. Come early for brunch, grab a counter seat, and take part in the American tradition of ordering a healthy stack of pancakes.
