Water Street Market

"Shops, Food & Events"

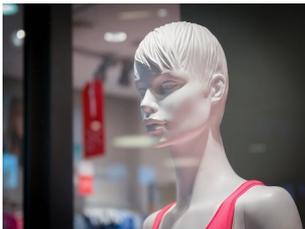

The cornerstone of downtown's dining and shopping scene, Water Street Market has something for everyone. If you are hungry there's the Water Street Seafood Company, the Water Street Oyster Bar and at the Executive Surf Club you can tap into more than thirty different beers. When you're done eating and drinking, explore the history of surfing in the state at the Texas Surf Museum located in the back of Surf Club Records. There are plenty of other shops to browse through and a few benches if you just need a break from all the eating and shopping.

Lamar Park

"Modern Shopping Haven"

Lamar Park is a shopping center that offers its visitors the best of both worlds in terms of shopping and dining. In between well-known stores such as Ann Taylor Loft, Talbot's, and Chico's, guests will also find local shops such as Four Chicks in the Park as well as a few others. It's a wonderful way to spend an afternoon, after which, patrons can relax and unwind at the many restaurants on site.

La Palmera

"Find It All under One Roof"

La Palmera is one of the premier shopping destinations in Corpus Christi. With more than 100 different stores in this shopping center, if you can't find it here, you will probably have to order it online. Some of the shops include TJ Maxx, Macy's, GNC and Forever 21, to name a few. La Palmera is the place to shop for anything from clothing to home items, gifts and everything in-between. The food court offers a wide variety of lunch and dining options such as P.F. Chang's, Grimaldi's Pizzeria, Stir Fry 88, Sarku Japan, Subway, and more.
