Max's Oyster Bar

"American Cuisine Stop"

Located in West Hartford's growing shopping district, is this restaurant reminiscent of a metropolitan oyster bar. It is the fourth creation of restaurateur Ricard Rosenthal. It was awarded Best New Restaurant by Connecticut Magazine and "Best Seafood Restaurant" in 2003 and 2005. The understated atmosphere of muted colors and comfortable seatings allow the diners to focus on food. Featuring modern renditions of classic American seafood, the menu has something for everyone. Seafood is the focal point, there are selections for the land bound. Ethnic influences are apparent throughout a menu filled with new interpretations on traditional fare.

Ruth's Chris Steak House - Hartford

"Upscale Steakhouse"

One of the most popular steakhouses in the city, Ruth's Chris Steak House - Hartford needs no introduction. Set in a chic, elegant space, the atmosphere in here is set perfectly for an enjoyable meal with family and friends. Best known for its variety of sizzled and charred meats, expect nothing short of a palate-pleasing experience from this restaurant. Succulent, tender and full of flavor, the signature Cowboy Ribeye, T-Bone and New York strip never fails to be a pure delight to the taste-buds. Along with the red meats, the choice of seafood are also well-worth a shot.
