Mermaid Inn of Mystic

"Mermaid's Delight"

The Mermaid Inn is an adorable bed and breakfast located in the heart of Downtown Mystic that offers three rooms. Every room has unique-designed mermaid artwork, all done by local artist Jennifer Wolcin. Rooms are bright and well-appointed with classic furniture, including a DVD/VCR combo player for those evenings when you just feel like relaxing as if you were at home.

Steamboat Inn

"Quaint, Downtown Accommodations"

The Steamboat Inn in Downtown Mystic is the town's only waterfront hotel, complete with rooms that overlook the Mystic River. This small bed and breakfast has 11 rooms, each painstakingly decorated with antiques and with unique designs throughout. Many rooms have whirlpool baths and some even have working fireplaces for use from October to May. Room rates are lowest in winter and highest in the summer.

Captain Grant's Inn & Stagecoach Inn

"Historic 18th-Century Inn"

When it comes to a bed and breakfast, Captain Grant's Inn offers everything and then some. This small bed and breakfast offers seven uniquely-designed rooms throughout three different colonial buildings on the property. In each room, not only will you find your traditional hotel amenities like shampoo, conditioner, TV, but how about a decanter of sherry? Never go to sleep at Captain Grant's Inn without your nightcap. A full breakfast is served in the mornings and the menu changes according to the seasons. No matter what time of day, you will find cookies, freshly-made popcorn and pie or cake available in the lobby, so you can never escape your sweet tooth! Also on the grounds is the Stagecoach Inn, which appeals to long-stay guests and has a full kitchen, living/sitting room and offers the most privacy.
