

"Best Street Food in Jaipur"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Joanna Kosinska on Unsplash on Unsplash ©

Special Lassi Wala

"Cooling Lassis"

No visit to Jaipur is ever complete without a stop at the Special Lassi Wala. This shop offers patrons a glass of full-fat lassi or yogurt that is a traditional Indian cooler. It is made from milk, milk solids and sugar. Topped with cream, the chilled beverage is served in authentic earthen pots and are excellent for beating the heat. Such is the taste of the drink, that you would be tempted for more. In case you feel hungry, the small restaurant serves some scrumptious Indian delicacies like Parantha, Chhole Bhature, Chaat and Dosa.

📞 +91 9667188811

📍 312 MI Road, Jaipur

📷 by Rachel Park on Unsplash on Unsplash ©

Tapri

"Love for Tea"

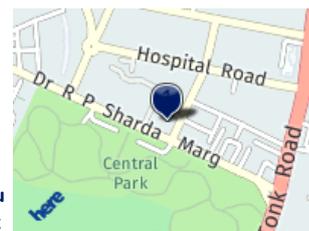

Although the name suggests a kind of roadside tea stall, Tapri is really a cozy cafe and tea room, known for the varieties of tea which are served here such as White Tea, Jasmine Pearl Tea and Hibiscus Tea. Whether you want some light breakfast snacks or are a tea lover wanting to experiment with a few unique flavors and varieties, this is the place to come to. The interior is simple but cozy, with framed photographs on the walls and spacious booths where families can sit and grab a meal. On cooler days and evenings, you can also sit in their patio area on one of the pretty, woven cane chairs and watch the world go by as you savor a cup of tea.

📞 +91 141 514 4477

🌐 www.tapri.net/

✉ express@tapri.net

📍 B-4E Prithviraj Road, C-Scheme, Jaipur

📷 by sharonang ©

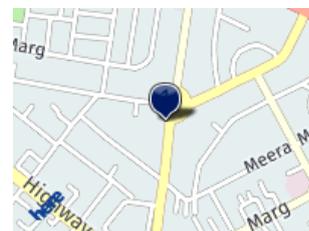

📞 +91 9314256822

Delhi Chat Bhandar

"Scrumptious Local Delights on Budget"

Sample the taste of traditional street-food of Delhi at the Delhi Chat Bhandar. This popular venue serves chat and other savories that tempt and tease the palate. Bhelpuri, Sev Puri, Papdi Chat and Gol-Gappe are the most popular items. The venue tends to get a bit crowded as it is one of the favorite spots serving delicious food at pocket-friendly rates.

📍 D 95 Madho Singh Road, Madho Singh Circle, Near Tulsi Marg, Jaipur

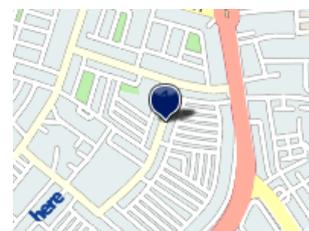

📷 by gwons ©

Saras Parlor

"Quick Bites by the Street"

Saras Parlor is a popular dairy in Jaipur that offers a variety of freshly-prepared milk products like Lassi, Coffee, ice cream and the like. Try the traditional hot milk and jalebi (a sweet made of deep-fried wheat flour) combination here. There is a variety of ice creams to choose from, like Chocolate, Kesar Pista, Tutti Frutti and Butter-Scotch. In case you are hungry, this food stand offers local delights like samosa, paneer pakode and other chaat items.

by Shreveport-Bossier:
Louisiana's Other Side

+91 8440014441

Waylay

"Interesting Dining Place"

Situated across from the World Trade Park, the Waylay is a beautiful cafe and restaurant that is located in one of the cream areas in Jaipur. It serves a range of dishes from sandwiches, pizzas, pastas, coffee, tea and mock-tails to sweet desserts. The menu as well is written in a humorous eye-catching manner. The decor is interesting and quirky and is sure to catch your fancy. All in all, you are sure to enjoy your time here.

waylayjaipur@gmail.com

C-12 Jawaharlal Nehru Marg, Lal
Bahadur Nagar, Opposite World Trade
Park, Jaipur

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com