Suvarna Mahal

"Royal Experience"

Rajasthan is known for its monarchical legacies and grandeur. Each place, restaurant or even a street has a history tucked behind it. One such prominent palace-turned-hotel is the Rambagh Palace that houses an array of restaurants. The Suvarna Mahal restaurant promises extravagance in terms of ambiance and exuberance in terms of the food it has to offer. With crystal chandeliers, gold plated tableware and exotic menus of the royal houses of India, you will feel no less than a king or a queen here. The restaurant also houses a delightful wine cellar. An attire of semi-formal to smart casuals is recommended. All in all, a majestic experience in the heart of royalty. Call for reservations.

Aza

"Simply Excellent"

This elegant library bar will wow you with its aesthetics, fine liquor, sublime food and theme. Decked up like a royal hunting lodge of a bygone Maharaja, Aza is segregated into different heady sections, such as the whiskey bar with its rare editions, collector's selection and malts. The cigar room is where you can smoke away your favorite cheroot. Take a sip of your aged drinks or puff on a cigar in the swank interiors. Aza also gives you exemplary outdoor experience where you can enjoy alcohol and food in the beautiful lawns amongst bonfires and mashaals. There is also a stellar wine cellar for wine aficionados.
