Fuji

"Japanese Cuisines at your Town"

Fuji is a Japanese restaurant that features some of the exquisite Japanese preparations. The place is brightly decorated with beautiful furniture and cutlery. Some of the items on the menu are Chicken Gyoza, Hakka Chow Noodles and Tori Teriyaki. One you enter this outlet, you will be greeted by staff that is dressed in typical Japanese clothes. The basic idea is to make the customers feel as if they have entered the town of Japan. All said and done, the menu is expensive, so definitely not an eatery where you can go on a regular basis.

The Wall

"Authentic Pan-Asian"

If you wish for a change from the usual Indian-style Chinese which is found at most restaurants, come to The Wall and marvel in the authenticity of their delightful Pan-Asian cuisine. The menu features the exotic Sushi and Dim Sum, as well as the authentic Tempura Platter, Miso soup and Barbecued Pork Chops. Sharing portions of Japanese hot pots are also served and heated right at the table while you eat. The gold accents in the decor add to the oriental appeal, making this place a refreshing addition to Kolkata's culinary scene.
