Kusum Snack Bar

"Rolls and Much More"

While you are in Kolkata, you cannot miss out on having some of the delicious rolls served in Kusum Snack Bar. Located in the Park Street area, this place is famous for different kinds of rolls such as veg roll, egg roll, chicken roll, mayonnaise roll and so on. Although it does not promise to have a great ambiance and a lovely looking restaurant like the famous ones in the area, but the taste of its food is sure to enhance your taste buds. The price is quite reasonable and so you are sure to bump in at Kusum Snack Bar on a regular basis.

Haldiram Food City

"Food for Thought"

Haldiram's is a popular Indian brand, known mainly for its sweet and farsan products. This particular endeavor is a full-fledged food extravaganza of 80,000 square feet, keeping in line with the brand's various products. At the ground level, you can find traditional Indian sweets and namkeens (savory snacks) as well as the cake counter which has a variety of egg-less cakes. The first floor has a large food court serving Indian and Continental food. The supermarket on the second floor stores household items and also has free home delivery in areas within 5 km radius. The third and fourth levels each have 6600 square feet of banqueting facilities used for exhibitions as well as private parties. The fifth floor is dedicated to all things vegetarian. Situated close to Birla Temple, Birla Industrial & Technological Museum and Calcutta Skating Rink, this Ballygunge establishment is especially crowded during the Durga Puja season.
