Eden Gardens Stadium

"Caught & Bowled"

Eden Gardens is not only an integral part of Kolkata city, but is also an important landmark in the International cricket map. The stadium is named after the adjoining Eden Gardens. Right from 1864, it has seen cricket records being made and broken by iconic players. What makes this stadium exclusive from its counterparts is the passion of the crowds towards the game. The player's concentration is almost put to test amidst the loud cheer and noise. Though the unruly behavior of the fans has resulted in match disruptions, this stadium still remains a favorite among all cricketers. Notable performances at Eden Gardens include bowler Harbhajan Singh's hat-trick against the Australians in 2000-01 and the 281 runs scored by VVS Laxman, in the same season, which is the highest individual score recorded at this ground. Try and visit Eden Gardens during a match to feel the excitement in the air.

Minerva Theatre

"19th-century Origins"

Kolkata's Minerva Theatre serves as a major city landmark. Established in the year 1893, it replaced the former Great National Theatre. The theatre's debut act featured the adaptation of legendary Shakespearean novel 'Macbeth.' Over the years, it changed ownership several times. Post damage caused by a 1922 fire, it was remodeled and thrown open for theatrical acts. It also remains famous as one of those iconic views that screened the state's first ever motion picture.
