Koshy's

"All in One"

As a brand, Koshy's has been in existence for a very long time now, having catered effectively to different taste-buds in the city. Starting with the 'Parade Cafe', which serves aromatic coffee, snacks and other drinks, this chain followed up with the funky Koshy's Bar and Restaurant'. And at the suitably named 'Chill-Out', passersby can relish mouth watering ice-creams, tasty tidbits and beverages too. Then there is the recent addition 'Jewel Box' which is much sought after by well heeled corporates. While the ambiance varies across Koshy's eateries, one things that always remains constant is the flavorful cuisine they serve up day in and day out. These joints are located in a prime location near the Bible Society of India and St. Mark's Cathedral.

Dakshin

"Delicacies from the South"

Situated in the well-known ITC Windsor hotel, the ornate wooden door of the Dakshin restaurant welcomes you into the world of southern delicacies. Also, as the word dakshin in Sanskrit means south, they predictably serve different dishes from across southern India. The sumptuous regional fare does spoil you for choices while interiors too match up to the cuisine served here. Dip into the rich gravy and curries served with steamed rice. Time and again, this restaurant has won many accolades for serving delicious South-Indian food. Do visit to live up to the true 'Dakshin' experience.
