Maiyas Restaurant

"Breakfast Bangalore Style"

Maiyas is a popular local chain serving up authentic South Indian fare to a diverse clientele. This Maiyas outlet in Jaya Nagar welcomes diners from far and wide. A busy spot for lazy Sunday breakfasts and brunches, it cooks up home-style preparations like Curd Vada, Chow-chow bhath, Masala Dosa and local meals which consist of traditional eats like rasam, sambar, rice and poori. For desserts, Maiyas beguiles your taste buds with those decadent gulab jamoons, cham cham, rasgulla and badam halwa, among other decadent treats.

Corner House

"Ice Creams and More"

Stopping by Corner House and not indulging in their celebrated ice creams is no less than a sin. Bengaluru's favorite ice-cream parlor serves the most delicious sundaes and frozen desserts in town. The one at Carlton Towers has a small place for sitting, so patrons stand in and around the parlor, eating out of the scrumptious waffle cones. The 'Death by Chocolate' is a patent of Corner House. Like the name suggests, it is actually no mean task trying to finish the sinful, generous portions doled out. Depending on the seasons, they stock fruit flavored ice-creams as well. Desserts like Triple Sundae or Banana Split are also to die for. Although there are the regular ones like Mango and Blackcurrant, they also have the 'irregular' ones like Chocolate Mint Chips.

Cake Walk

"Dessert Mania"

Steps away from the Indiranagar metro, Cake Walk thrills patrons with its array of desserts, pastries and other baked goods. Available for both dining in and take-out, this place serves a menu with unique confectionery items, ranging from Turkish Delight and Toffee Chocolate cakes to Honeycomb and Lychee Rose varieties. Cake Walk also serves tarts, pies, brownies and cold set desserts.
