

"Best Concerts in Chennai"

Created by: Cityseeker

 5 Locations Bookmarked

Sir Mutha Venkatasubba Rao Concert Hall

"Elegance is the Word"

The Sir Mutha Venkatasubba Rao Concert Hall known in Chennai's city circles as 'The Concert Hall', is a spectacular venue hosting an array of entertainment events. With a capacity of over 1000 and its excellent logistics, this is an ideal location for an event expecting larger crowds. The fantastically designed interiors and tastefully presented exteriors have class written all over. Owned by the Madras Seva Sadan, this hall boasts of an illustrious past repertoire including a brilliant performance by Pandit Ravi Shankar.

 +91 44 2836 3921

 www.sirmuthamemorial.com/

 info@sirmuthamemorial.com

 13/1 Harrington Road, 7 Shenstone Park, Chennai

The Music Academy

"Carnatic Music Academy"

The Music Academy is an institution that was set up somewhere in the '20s, as an attempt to promote Carnatic music. The academy since then has been fostering the culture of music in the south. It has its own rules and formats for imparting knowledge in music. They also regularly organize musical conferences in the in-house auditorium. Indeed it is one of the best places to go to learn South Indian classical music.

 by "DynamicWang on Unsplash" on Unsplash

 +91 44 2811 2231

 www.musicacademymadr.as.in/music@musicacademymadr.com

 New No. 168 T.T.K. Road, Chennai

Vani Mahal (Thyaga Brahma Gana Sabha)

"Classy Classical"

A prestigious venue for art performances in Chennai, the focus at Vani Mahal is on traditional music and dance forms in South India. Also called "The Thyaga Brahma Gana Sabha", this venue hosts regular classical concerts and stunning dance spectacles. A list of eminent personalities from different performing arts are members of this distinguished haven of arts. Some illustrious benefactors include "Chembai Vaidyanatha Bhagavathar, K.J. Yesudas, M.S.Subhalakshmi, Embar Vijayaraghavachariar" and the likes. The facility has two auditoriums of differing sizes for art performances and a relatively small hall for exhibitions and trade fairs. The hall can also be rented by members for performances.

 +91 44 2815 2166

 www.vanimahal.com/

 103 G.N. Chetty Road, Chennai

by portnoy333

Narada Gana Sabha Hall

"Musically Catchy!"

Narada Gana Sabha Hall is by far one of the most active concert halls in Chennai, throughout the year. This hall hosts a mind boggling number of memorable musical concerts and dance events, giving a major boost to the city's already pulsating cultural climate. With sophisticated technology, every performance by performing artists is only accentuated by state-of-the-art sound and lighting. The artists are passionate about what they do, much to the delight of a very discerning audience. Call for details of the upcoming program.

+91 44 2499 0850

TTK Road, Chennai

by novelrobinson

Unwind Center

"Community Space"

The Unwind Center in Chennai allows musicians from all genres a space where they can perform in front of music enthusiasts of all ages. Whether its jazz, soft rock, gospel or blues that moves you, this center encourages it all. Community events, art exhibitions and theatrical productions are also part of the lineup. Unwind's volunteers are deeply committed to helping the poor, and they are against smoking, drinking and vulgar language (all of which most people consider synonymous with live gigs). Replenish yourself at their cafe which serves healthy fruit juices and finger-food.

+91 44 6537 9572

live@unwindcenter.com

8 Manikeswari Road, Kilpauk, Behind
CSI Bains School, Chennai

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com