Salazar New American Restaurant

"Farm Fresh with a Twist"

Offering fresh-picked fare straight from the farm, Salazar brings to the palate a twist on traditional American cuisine. The restaurant takes extra care to ensure that all the produce used is treated with perfection. Artfully envisioned, the menu consists of tantalizing dishes like pork loin with apple-brown butter purée, verlasso salmon with wild rice and fresh vegetables, and desserts like apple-pecan buckle with vanilla-bean ice cream. Between top-quality ingredients and creative plating, Salazar represents the best of farm to table cuisine.

Arnold's Bar and Grill

"Historic Local Bar"

This historical establishment was founded in 1861, and it is still a success today. If you don't know Arnold's Bar & Grill, you don't know Cincinnati yet. With its old-school decor and live tunes, it enchants everyone who is up for some fun and good music. This unique place has the best drink selection, including a variety of bourbons. Be sure to try the pretzels and the fries (they're spectacular). The courtyard completes the special atmosphere. If you are looking for a great place to eat and have a night out with friends, Arnold's Bar & Grill is your place.

El Coyote

"Fantastic Food And Steak"

El Coyote is a Tex-Mex restaurant located in the heart of the Sherwood district. This restaurant hits the sweet spot for traditional meat-loving Americans and is known for its succulent steaks and chops, mashed potatoes, fajitas and Mexican food. Try a new dish on every visit because everything on the menu is delicious and has a unique combination of flavors and texture. They also serve a wide range of beer and spirits and a handful of cocktails, of which their half frozen margaritas are recommended. With its casual and warm ambiance and attentive and friendly the staff, this place is definitely worth a visit.
