Hotel Platzl

"Tradition & Progress"

Centrally located between the Hofbräuhaus and Marienplatz, and not far from the major theatres, this traditional hotel provides refined and superior comfort in modernly renovated, spacious rooms, some of which have been fitted to luxury standard. The building itself is a fine medieval town house and the furnishings maintain a balance between cosiness and modernity. There are two well-run restaurants offering high quality Bavarian cuisine. The management makes a special effort to run an environmentally friendly operation for which it has received a number of accolades.
