Atelier Gourmet

"A French Feast in Munich"

A bistro-style restaurant, Atelier Gourmet serves French dishes with a modern twist. Ingredients and flavors that are inherently French come together in unique combinations at this restaurant. From mains that combine duck and pomegranate to desserts that are a mix of traditional and inventive, the restaurant strives to push the boundaries of French cuisine. Reservation is recommended as they can accommodate just a limited number of patrons at one time.

Schwarz & Weiz

"A Fantastic Fusion"

Sofitel Munich Bayerpost has many wonderful amenities on offer, one of which is the gourmet restaurant, Schwarz & Weiz. The dishes at this eatery are crafted by fusing flavors from France and Bavaria, and the outcome is a menu filled with divine creations. The French influence on typically Bavarian dishes like Polting-style lamb is deliciously evident, and the meal is only complete when paired with a wine from the extensive selection.

Restaurant Tantris

"A Gourmet's Paradise"

Tantris is highly regarded and a name to reckon with among restaurants in Munich. The place is renowned for its rendition of contemporary international cuisine paired with an excellent selection of wines. The front of the house is draped in red and black, which sets the tone for an evening meal of their enticing fare. The house regards food as the basis for happiness, and judging by the delighted, satiated faces in the restaurant, the food here is true to the resto's philosophy. A terrace as well as a garden room are available for functions on Sundays and Mondays. The food consists of set meals and a-la-carte options to savor at leisure.

Broeding

"An Austrian in Munich"

Confident in their ability to serve you delicious meal capable of satiating diverse palates, Broeding serves a daily changing five- and six-course menu for dinner six days a week. Needless to say, the meals served here are exceedingly well thought out and exquisitely prepared. The cuisine is solid and hearty rather than fine, and features Classic Southern German and Austrian ingredients combined in a novel fashion. There is also an enormous variety of Austrian wines and a special fish menu once a month.
