Restaurant Pars

"Exotic Persian Restaurant"

As you climb down the cellar steps to Pars Persian Restaurant, you enter another world altogether, that of a 1001 Arabian Nights. Beautifully decorated with Persian rugs and textiles, traditional musical instruments, colorful blue and white tiled walls and tables, lanterns and bright sofas, it certainly doesn't feel like you're in Munich any longer. Try their traditional Kaschke Bademdjan, Barg Navabi and their delectable Nomads Platter. With generous portions, this food was meant to be shared.

Dehbaschi

"Delightful Persian Cuisine"

Dehbaschi is renowned for their delicious Persian fare. This romantic restaurant has an old world charm to it and is warm and inviting. The wait time is a bit more but it is worthwhile when you have the sublime food. The menu changes on a regular basis, but everything is nonetheless very delish. You will normally see tourists and couples here enjoying the delightful fare and romantic atmosphere. They do serve wine and beer along with your meal. And for entertainment, you have the classic belly dancing show after dinner.

Shandiz

"Middle-Eastern Aromas and Flavors"

Nora and Amin Salehi bring an authentic Persian dining experience to the Maxvorstadt tenement of Munich with Shandiz. Being a family-run joint, Shandiz delivers on all fronts - from traditionally prepared dishes, ethnic decor, fine attention to details to professional yet friendly service. The staff will readily recommend but if you're new to Persian cuisine then you must try the Mira Ghassemi, Kadu, Kabab Kubideh or Khoreschte Bamieh. Pair the food with Bavarian beer round it off with a helping of something sweet; a pleasurable dining experience is guaranteed.

Blue Nile

"Where Africans Go to Eat"

Although Blue Nile lacks romantic ambiance, this simple restaurant is an excellent introduction to Ethiopian cuisine. The dishes are prepared according to traditional recipes without making any concessions to the European palate. It will take a moment to adjust before you get used to the dining experience, since you will have to learn to eat with your fingers! The pleasant staff will help you out if you are struggling. After a couple of glasses of honey wine, all your inhibitions will disappear. The fact that many Africans eat here speaks volumes about the quality of the food.
