Favorit Bar

"Wannabe Berlin"

For those looking for a hole-in-the-wall bar right in the center of Munich, Favorit Bar it is. Favorit Bar is located right around the corner from Kaufingerstraße, the biggest shopping street in Munich. Although this area can seem rather desolate at night, after all the tourists have headed to Hofbräuhaus, the vibrant vibe of this place is sure to lure you in. The unfinished walls and complete lack of furnishing give new meaning to the word "minimalist," but the understated décor adds to its atmosphere and popularity. Packed to the gills every night with an unassuming, diverse, and friendly crowd, who needs a fancy expensive cocktail? A nice bottle of beer is the perfect accompaniment to the tunes spilling from the DJ stand and a lively conversation with the locals is enough for a great time.

Schwabinger 7

"Dark, Busy and Loud"

Schwabinger 7 has seen a lot in all its years of existence. Even an underground bomb in its vicinity. The pub has changed location as well, but that hasn't changed the core of Schwabinger 7. It is still tiny, the walls are dark and the lighting is almost non-existent, but after 10pm it is always jammed. Despite the chaos, the service is swift. All kinds of people gather here, from alcoholics to smart business types. The music is always blaring at disco strength, but at least it's good hard rock. The staple drink is mostly beer.
