Pusser's

"One of the City's Best Bars"

Pusser's is a city institution - this New York-style cocktail bar, with its old-fashioned, nostalgic decor and perfectly concocted cocktails is a favorite amongst locals and visitors alike. The drinks' selection here is marvelous. If you come to Pusser's, it's almost imperative that you try the Painkiller, a deliciously tropical combination of pineapple, grated nutmeg, coconut, fresh orange juice, and rum. There is a piano bar in the cellar, the perfect finishing touch to an evening steeped in the past.

Havana Club

"Fall in love"

With an atmosphere of old pre-revolutionary Cuba, Havana Club is one of the few established cocktail bars in the city center, attracting the youth of the city. Established in 1985, its wonderful bar, brick walls and healthy-looking plants provide the backdrop for a lively crowd. Their collection of rum and wines from around the globe are equally popular. This place is particularly good for an early evening drink.

Schumann's Bar am Hofgarten + Camparino

"Old-Feel Bar"

At Schumann's, you'll feel like you're in an old-style Vienna bar, from the dark wood interiors to the stern art on the walls. The beer on tap is excellent, as is the cocktail selection, and there's an outdoor seating area with large red umbrellas for people to enjoy on warmer days; the people-watching is delightful. The bar gets lively so if you want a table, so a table reservation is recommended.

Nage & Sauge

"Top Quality"

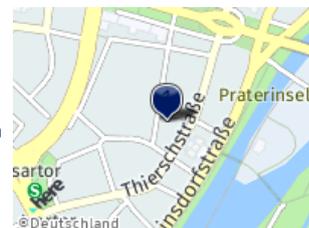

Nage & Sauge is a popular little pub in Lehel which serves excellent Italian fare like pizzas as well as other international fare. The house specialty, focaccia, is Italian yeast bread with lots of olives, served with herb butter, fruit, meat or fish toppings. They're also known for the giant salads, that are quite big enough for two. The place tends to be full with well-dressed, fashionable young professionals, so arrive early in the evening to ensure a place.

Negroni

"Style & Class"

The overall decor and ambiance that Negroni models itself after is the typical classic American cocktail bar. Negroni is swanky, chic and always well-stocked. What's more is that although small in space, the bar does provide a menu with fine Italian dishes that varies from week to week. Also something to note, is the terrace is open during the warmer days of the year if you prefer to enjoy your drinks whilst basking underneath the sun.

Pomp

"A Mini Party Getaway"

With the landlord standing at the door itself, Pomp is a small bar which is rather hidden away and yet worth all the effort it takes to get into the place. Apart from that, it is very relaxing, rather plush in a kitschy kind of way, with good drinks and great music. It's an ideal place to come to party with your friends and make a few new ones making it a go-to destination for locals as well as the youthful tourists.
