Mint Karaoke Lounge

"Karaoke At Its Finest"

Sing it loud: The Mint is open 365 days a year to showcase your talent, whether you're a karaoke first-timer or a seasoned veteran. The serious karaoke begins at 4p on weekend nights and later during the week, and the happy crowd guarantees competition for time at the mic and an audience once you get up there. No cover or song charge, and drink prices are average for the area.

Cat Club

"Cat as Catch Can!"

Discover the true spirit of San Francisco in this all inclusive, eclectic SoMa nightclub. Everyone from head banging punk rockers to polo-wearing yuppies can be seen here on any given night, and all are welcomed with equal enthusiasm. Nightly themes range from the underground 1980s music scene to New Wave to karaoke. Inside, the red lights cast a sexy glow on all of the club goers and the vinyl bench seating, silver go-go cage, and over-sized mirrors create a fun and energetic atmosphere that have helped make this club a staple in San Francisco's nightlife.
