Heaven

"A Heavenly Gay Nightclub"

Belinda Carlisle knew what she was on about when she sang "Heaven is a place on earth" - it's right next to Charing Cross tube, and it's probably London's best-known gay club. As with most popular gay venues, large crowds of straight tourists abound. Heaven has tried to curb this by designating different nights as straight, gay or mixed, but it hasn't really worked. Not that it matters at all, because Heaven is still a blissful venue which puts on a huge variety of club nights. The lounge upstairs provides a bit of friendly chill-out to a golden oldies atmosphere and you can actually talk in here without shouting. It all makes for an interesting and entertaining clubbing experience.

Ministry Of Sound

"World-Famous Sound"

The world famous Ministry of Sound is one of London's hippest nightspots. It suffered a bit of a slump in popularity in the late 1990s, but has returned with a vengeance. The fame of this luxury venue is now so widespread and truly international that MoS (as it is commonly referred to) even offers numerous compilation CD remixes of Ministry club anthems. The venue itself has four dance floors and several bars, and draws famous DJs from around the globe.

Fabric

"Party Till Dawn"

Marvel at the Victorian arches of Fabric, which dates back to 1999. The main dance floor here boasts a "Body Sonic" sound system that makes your whole body vibrate with the bass. At this establishment, there's always something to enjoy on various days of the week, be it bass music or the disco, techno, and house genres. Thanks to the features above, Fabric has been featured on DJ Magazine's top 100 clubs and has won many International Dance Music Awards. However, the most important thing to remember about this place is that you must be over 19.

Corsica Studios

"Modern, Underground Parties"

Corsica Studios consistently holds some of the city's most extreme underground music parties. The different spaces within the Studios can be hired for hosting private or public functions. The hi-tech DJ equipment, sound amplifiers, screens, projectors, and stage completely take care of music and entertainment at the venue. A warehouse-style venue, the establishment has a well-stocked bar for thirsty visitors, superb service, a proper dance floor, and even regularly hosts live performances that make entrance into Corsica a highly sought-after ticket.

Koko

"A Lively Music Venue"

Koko is one of London's largest club venues which is quite popular with the students and the local crowds. A wide variety of music is featured here, from disco and funk to handbag and house, depending on the night. The acoustics of this grand building lend themselves perfectly to live music, and Koko has a policy of regularly showcasing regional upcoming talents. There really is something in store for everyone here, and this attracts a great mixed crowd.

Cargo

"Nightly Hang-out"

Cargo is one popular place to go for drinks, live music and an assortment of pub grub. The bar spouts heady potions to late-night birds and concert crowds who like to linger. The space under the viaduct is smartly refurbished to accommodate live acts and parties. Huevos rancheros, burgers, nachos, fish tacos and vegetarian empanadas, are dished around in the cafe along the street. The place is filled with thumping music mixed together by world renowned DJs like Ramshackle, Louise, Kash and others.
