Club M

"Big City Styled Club"

Club M is unusual in Dublin since it is one of the only city center nightclubs which aims for, and achieves, the style of bigger clubs in English cities. Complete with dancers, dry ice, lasers, and multi-media shows, this is the place to go if you want a touch of Ibiza. The music ranges from chart dance to happy house and light techno. You can get as glammed up as you want, and because it is attached to the popular Bloom's Hotel, you can be sure that there is a vigilant, but not restrictive door policy.

Copper Face Jack's

"A Lively Nightclub for Singles"

This long-established nightclub draws an older crowd that ranges anywhere from the late twenties to mid-fifties. Copper Face Jack's has somewhat of a reputation for being a 'singles' venue. Musically, the club is arguably a little unadventurous, concentrating generally on mainstream chart sounds, but the playlist appears to please the crowd nonetheless. If you are twenty-something yourself or older, and are looking for a fun night out, then certainly consider heading to Copper Face Jack's.

Dtwo

"Truly All In One"

Dtwo is a massive facility that takes care of your entertainment, drinking as well as dining needs. Home to a stunning sports bar, a beautiful beer garden, a nightclub, and the Backyard BBQ restaurant, Dtwo is a haunt for locals as well as tourists. If you are waiting for a good game to start then Dtwo's sports bar is where you can catch the action on their 6 meters (20 feet) screen. The club on site is a perfect place for youngsters who like to party late into the night. Dtwo's beer garden is one of the place's unique offerings, this verdant zone can accommodate up to 500 patrons. For those who enjoy meaty dishes, a meal at Backyard BBQ comes most recommended when in Dtwo.

The Sugar Club

"Elegant Jazz and Salsa Venue"

This relatively new venue in the city centre is filling a gap in Dublin's nightlife by hosting some of the best in indie rock, jazz, funk, ska, blues and latin with a choice of regular DJ's, plus comedy and world cinema. With theatre like seating, everyone has the best spot in the house for viewing and mingling pleasures. Enjoy refreshment from a reasonably priced cocktail and wine list while you soak up the pleasure of live quality jazz. Wednesday nights combine salsa lessons with a club. Be there by 10p to get a seat in the plushly designed auditorium.
