Club M

"Big City Styled Club"

Club M is unusual in Dublin since it is one of the only city center nightclubs which aims for, and achieves, the style of bigger clubs in English cities. Complete with dancers, dry ice, lasers, and multi-media shows, this is the place to go if you want a touch of Ibiza. The music ranges from chart dance to happy house and light techno. You can get as glammed up as you want, and because it is attached to the popular Bloom's Hotel, you can be sure that there is a vigilant, but not restrictive door policy.

Krystle

"Cozy Nightclub"

One of Dublin's most stylish nightclubs, Krystle boasts an authentic ambiance which attracts a variety of party-goers. As a part of the well-known Russell Court Hotel, the music here is upbeat and groovy and the dance floor is packed to the hilt. Live percussion on select days, adds to the vibe of this place. With a long bar at the entrance and a heated beer garden on the rooftop, this vibrant nightclub is set to serve tasty libations to anyone looking to dance off the chill from outside.

Dtwo

"Truly All In One"

Dtwo is a massive facility that takes care of your entertainment, drinking as well as dining needs. Home to a stunning sports bar, a beautiful beer garden, a nightclub, and the Backyard BBQ restaurant, Dtwo is a haunt for locals as well as tourists. If you are waiting for a good game to start then Dtwo's sports bar is where you can catch the action on their 6 meters (20 feet) screen. The club on site is a perfect place for youngsters who like to party late into the night. Dtwo's beer garden is one of the place's unique offerings, this verdant zone can accommodate up to 500 patrons. For those who enjoy meaty dishes, a meal at Backyard BBQ comes most recommended when in Dtwo.
