Guerlain

"Thanks to Napoléon III's Wife"

On the Champs-Élysées, this sumptuous boutique sells Guerlain's full range of perfume, make-up and Issima skincare products - many of which are only available at Guerlain's Paris stores. Luckily for France, Guerlain, a vinegar maker with a small side perfume business on the Rue de Rivoli, got his break from the Empress Eugénie, who commissioned the first Eau Impériale. You can still buy this perfume along with dozens of others in this quintessentially French store.
