Villa Spalletti Trivelli

"A Charming Period Villa"

Villa Spalletti Trivelli is an imperial 20th-century Italian villa that serves as an aristocratic hotel. Just a few minutes walk from Piazza del Quirinale, Villa Spalletti is a lovely retreat, away from the hustle-bustle and yet so close to the major attractions. The furnishings at this villa reflect the charm of the bygone era, and modern amenities complement it very well. The villa also serves its guests, delicious Casa Trivelli's traditional breakfast spread in a buffet. Internet access, bathroom amenities, gym and many other facilities are available at Villa Spalletti.

Grand Hotel Parco dei Principi

"Stay Near St. Peter's"

This hotel is decorated in classical style and was designed in the 1960s by the architect Giò Ponti. It has undergone extensive modifications that have completely transformed the inside; there is a beautiful foyer complete with fireplace, and the conference rooms are very impressive. The hotel faces one of the most famous places in the city: Villa Borghese, with a beautiful view of its private park and swimming pool from the bedrooms. From the top floor there is a view that stretches from St Peter's to Villa Borghese. The bedrooms are classically furnished and the hotel restaurant 'Pauline Borghese' faces onto the Botanical garden.
