

"Best Local Cuisine in Rome"

Created By: Cityseeker

 42 Locations Bookmarked

 by Vinotecarium

Enoteca Provincia Romana

"Hotspot for Local Cuisine"

A casual eatery and bar boasting of highly innovative local cuisine along with a spirit selection that will put the best of restaurants to shame, Enoteca Provincia Romana is one gem of a find in the heart of Rome. Although the menu is selective, the dishes offered are beautifully created and the presentation is well-executed. Directly facing the famous Trajan's column, the entire atmosphere of the restaurant is abuzz with infectious energy. Service is genuinely warm and helpful.

 +39 39 6 994 0273

 www.enotecaprovinciaromana.it/

 provinciaromana@gmail.com

 Foro Traiano 82, Rome

 by sharonang

La Taverna dei Fori Imperiali

"Homemade Italian"

The best kept secret of Rome is the 'Taverna dei Fori Imperiali. A family owned restaurant, its decorated just like a tourist spot with red and white checked table cloths. The menu is small with specials, but the quality makes up for what it lacks in quantity. Fresh pasta, veal, beef are experimented with for delicious meals. Try the 'Pappardelle with white truffles, and Pappardelle with Porcini mushrooms or egg stuffed meat loaf. Not only this they serve exquisite desserts. The carrot cake with chocolate sauce is delicious. Check out the website for more details.

 +39 06 679 8643

 www.latavernadeiforiimperiali.com/cucina-romana-roma-centro-storico-roman-cuisine-rome-historic-center/

 Via della Madonna dei Monti 9, Rome

 by pixel2013

Al Pompiere

"Wonderful Roman Jewish Dishes"

This delightful restaurant has been around since 1928 and has been owned by the same family. Located in an old palace on the first floor, the warm and cozy ambiance will immediately make you feel comfortable. Locals and tourists alike throng here for their Roman Jewish dishes such as zucchini flowers, battered salt cod, Jewish-style fried artichokes and more. You will also find some historic dishes such as beef-and-citron stew which is an ancient Roman recipe of Apicius. Don't miss the opportunity to order the succulent Roman porcehetta (roasted suckling pig special) if it is available as it is simply irresistible.

 +39 06 686 8377

 Via Santa Maria De' Calderari 38, Rome

Trattoria e Taverna Romana

"A Perfect Meal"

A wonderful place to have a late night dinner as it is situated right next to the Colosseum and all major historic sights. The atmosphere is very "old Italian style", with wooden floor and paintings on the walls. The menu offers a great variety of pasta dishes, and some pizza. Try the gnocchi that is mouth-wateringly rich. Wine is served by the glass, and all major credit cards accepted, with reservations being preferred. The main attraction of this venue is the cheap prices for quality food that sets it apart from all its competitors.

+39 06 474 5325

Via della Madonna dei Monti 79, Rome

by Public Domain

Piperno

"In the Heart of the Ghetto"

Piperno is without a doubt, the most famous Roman restaurant that features Jewish cuisine and is very well-known by tourists and locals who beg you to try the typical dishes of this area. The service is impeccable. Here you can taste some of the best fried food in Rome, such as Judea-style artichokes, zucchini flowers with mozzarella and anchovies, dried Cod fillet and Ovoline. The home-made pasta, the toadfish and tripe are excellent. There is an extensive and carefully chosen wine-list.

+39 06 6880 6629

www.ristorantepiperno.com/

info@ristorantepiperno.it

Via Monte De' Cenci 9, Rome

by Geoff Greene

Fortunato al Pantheon

"Roman Cuisine Loved By Politicians"

Frequented by politicians, Fortunato al Pantheon is where you should try authentic Roman cuisine. Established in 1979, this restaurant has been delighting its customers with tantalizing fares, that keep them coming back for more. Spaghetti alle vongole (clams), gnocchetti al gorgonzola, pasta and lentils and fresh fish are fixed items on the menu. The seasonal mushroom dishes must be tried to be believed. Superb service. Good selection of wines are available to accompany your meal.

+39 06 679 2788

ristorante.dafortunato.it/

Info@ristorantefortunato.it

Via del Pantheon 55, Rome

by congerdesign

L'Asino d'Oro

"Delicious Umbrian Cuisine"

L'Asino d'Oro in Monti is renowned chef Lucio Sforza's gastronomic delight to the neighborhood and you will find the restaurant booked most of the times. The menu changes daily where the cuisine from Umbria takes center stage and signature dishes like game, pork and offal make as the starry casts. The restaurant has a warm ambiance with its soft lighting, comfy chairs and selective jazz music playing in the background. For lunch, the fixed menu for 12 euros is a steal. The food is excellent and is very affordable, do make some room for dessert as well.

+39 06 4891 3832

luciosforza@gmail.com

Via del Boschetto 73, Rome

by brainseller

Trattoria der Pallaro

"Friendliness & Roman Food"

Giovanni and Paola Fazi offer traditional, simple home cooking, and usually bring your meal to your table themselves. Apart from the classic antipasti, there is Carbonara, Amatriciana, Pappardelle al pomodoro, Scaloppine, Straccetti, vegetables, cheeses and desserts that leave the diner craving for more. The outdoor patio calls for a cozy time while basking in the sun amidst the fine food and wine. Dine here for a good time, any day. Payments are accepted through cash only. The restaurant is open everyday from lunchtime onwards.

+39 06 6880 1488

www.trattoriaderpallaro.it/

info@trattoriaderpallaro.it

Largo del Pallaro 15, Rome

by Geoff Peters 604

Maccheroni

"Three Enthusiasts"

A friendly, efficient restaurant run by three enthusiasts of good and simple cooking. Meals are accompanied by soft background music and you can sit outside in the lovely square during the summer months. Pasta is the house specialty here; for example, Spaghetti with bacon and onion, gnocchi, ravioli, or fettuccine with vegetables. The meat dishes are also good, for example the Veal Roulades. Reservations can be made by calling ahead or sending an email.

+39 06 6830 7895

www.ristorantemaccheroni.com/

Piazza delle Coppelle 44, Rome

by TheFork

Ditirambo

"Homemade Bread & Pasta"

Here the bread and pasta are homemade; enjoy them with walnuts, olives, pumpkin seeds or anything else the cook churns out deliciously. The pasta is hand-made and served with tasty garnishes such as tagliatelle with chestnuts or the more traditional tonnarelli with cheese and pepper. All desserts are homemade too. The wines are excellent and are a perfect accompaniment for your meal. The interior resembles a country inn with wood-work and country-style pictures. The seating is comfortable and air conditioning makes it pleasant in summer.

+39 06 687 1626

www.ristoranteditirambo.com/ info@ristoranteditirambo.it

Piazza della Cancelleria 75, Rome

by Christine Sandu on Unsplash

Da Gino

"Traditional Roman Cooking"

Here you can enjoy an excellent, typical Roman meal, in an elegant atmosphere. There are frescoes by Stampetà on the walls, which in places extend onto the ceiling. Service is efficient and pleasant, and the clientèle often includes well known Italian politicians. There is a different special every day, rotated on a weekly basis: on some days fish is served, when you will have a choice of the classic baccalà, anchovies and other seafood dishes, on other days gnocchi is served, as well as the ever available ravioli with spinach and tonnarelli with cheese and pepper. The excellent tiramisù is also not to be missed.

+39 06 687 3434

www.ristoranteparlamento.roma.it/

Vicolo Rosini 4, Rome

by Up-Free

Osteria La Quercia

"Mouthwatering Food & Lovely Setting"

Situated just a short walk away from Campo de' Fiori, Osteria La Quercia has more than just a beautiful location to offer you. Although the opportunity to sit under a majestic oak tree and observe the sights and sounds of the surrounding area is a major drawing card, patrons are also highly impressed by the scrumptious Roman cuisine they are served. Appetizers like stuffed zucchini flowers and salted cod start off a meal which includes mouthwatering dishes like spaghetti carbonara, tagliatelle with truffle and asparagus and more. The staff are always ready to make a wine recommendation.

+39 06 6830 0932

Piazza della Quercia 23, Rome

by thefork.com

Enoteca al Parlamento Achilli

"Specialty Wines"

This famous wine bar is right next to Parliament and offers a large variety of national and international wines, specializing in French and some rare wines for collectors. Apart from local wines, get a taste of wines sourced from around the globe. There is also a good choice of liqueurs, cognacs, brandy, whiskey and delicacies of excellent quality. It is possible to taste the wine at the bar with delicious canapés.

+39 06 687 3446

www.enotecalparlamento.com/

info@enotecalparlamento.it

Via dei Prefetti 15, Rome

by joshuemd

Colline Emiliane

"Emilian Flavors"

If you like good home cooking from the Emilian region, this is the right place for you. Attractive, well-kept surroundings, polite, attentive service. Large, delicious smelling dishes of the famous pasta, home-made in traditional Bolognese style, issue forth from the kitchen: tortelloni with pumpkin cooked in butter, or the classic tortelloni in sauce. Boiled meat with Cremona mustard is also recommended, as well as other meat dishes like duck in orange sauce. Most of the wines are Emilian. If you are having dessert, you must try the pear tart. Call ahead for reservations and more information.

+39 06 481 7538

www.collineemiliane.com/

collineemilianeroma@gmail.com

Via degli Avignonesi 22, Rome

by congerdesign

Matricianella

"Local Gem"

Make your Roman holiday even more memorable by dining at Matricianella, a non-touristy and authentic Italian eatery hidden away in plain view on Via del Leone. Although the main draw here is the food, many come here for the intimate and romantic atmosphere. Service is friendly and the seasonal menu packs some great traditional Roman standbys like Fiori di Zucca, Artichoke alla giudia, meatballs and pasta with truffles. In typical Italian fashion, meals begin with a lovely glass of prosecco.

+39 06 683 2100

www.matricianella.it/

info@matricianella.it

Via del Leone 4, Rome

by Ewan Munro

Roma Sparita

"Roman Delicacy"

A pleasant historic pizzeria with open-air tables, although used only if weather permits, Roma Sparita is an amazing place for a lovely meal in a pleasant setting. The pizzas cooked in the wood-fired oven are of the classic tradition, and there is a good choice of Roman seasonal dishes. Tagliolini al cacio e pepe is one of the house specialties, and is absolutely scrumptious. A good wine list is also on offer.

+39 06 580 0757

romasparita.com/

Piazza di Santa Cecilia 24, Rome

Campana

"Historic Setting & Roman Cuisine"

Historic restaurant serving traditional Roman cuisine, elegant, with faultless service. All the trademarks of Roman cooking: Fritti, artichokes alla Guidia and Frittura mista, Rigatoni, All'amatriciana, Roasted Loin of Pork and Oxtail are traditional favorites. Small, but a great wine list to complement your meals with. For reservations and more information, call ahead.

by cindy fernandez on Unsplash

+39 06 687 5273

www.ristorantelacampana.com/

ristorantecampana@gmail.com

Vicolo della Campana 18, Rome

Antica Taverna MangiaBene

"Wining & Dining, Roman Style"

A fine restaurant not far from Piazza Navona, Antica Taverna MangiaBene offers you mouthwatering Roman fare. The lunch and dinner menus offer a variety of dishes, all of which are delicious. Homemade gnocchi, rabbit casserole and polenta with wild game are some of the house specialties you must try. There are also excellent wine and champagne selections to choose from.

+39 06 6880 1053

info@anticatavernamangiabene.it

Via di Monte Giordano 12, Rome

Pierluigi

"Vast Selection For All Tastes"

This restaurant has been in existence since 1938 and is constantly expanding its menu. The restaurant is very popular among locals and tourists alike who appreciate its rustic atmosphere and excellent cuisine. The menu is extensive and starters include Farfalle with Radishes or Maltagliata with Shrimp and Bottarga. Among the main courses, the Escalopes with Red Pepper are excellent or you could try the Shrimp and Squid Fritters. In summer there are plenty of cold dishes, carpaccios and rich salads. Though it is on the expensive side, the food makes it worthwhile.

by Raphael Nogueira on Unsplash

+39 06 686 8717

www.pierluigi.it/

info@pierluigi.it

Piazza De' Ricci 144, Rome

Checco er Carettiere

"Restaurant With Many Hats!"

This significant restaurant in Trastevere has been wowing locals and visitors alike for more than 70 years and has seen three generations of the Checco clan leading the restaurant. Checco er Carettiere is a restaurant, tavern, gelateria and bakery all rolled into one. Known for their Roman dishes like tripe, oxtail, tagliolini with prawns, fine roasted fish, fried fish and more such delicacies, Checco is a great place to be with your family or friends. You will always find people in large groups enjoying the Roman delights and delicious wines here. The restaurant has a warm and welcoming ambiance with its black and white photos of celebs adorning the walls, wooden panels and terracotta floors. You will feel you have entered into the swaying 50's.

by TheFork

+39 06 581 7018

www.checcoercarettiere.it

info@checcoercarettiere.it

Via Benedetta 10, Rome

by RitaE

Il Fico Ristorante

"Roman Classics"

A charming neighborhood spot, Il Fico Ristorante is always swarming with locals. That in itself is distinctive in this touristy city, but it is the menu above all that is the real attraction at this eatery. Located just a short walk away from Piazza Navona, this restaurant serves classic Roman fare, and a typical meal comprises mouthwatering preparations like terrina di fiori di zuccina (zucchini flowers stuffed with cheese and parsley), lombata di vitello (veal chop), spaghetti alle vongole veraci (spaghetti with clams) and crème caramel. Open daily.

+39 06 687 5568

www.ilfico.com/ilficoristorante.html

ilfico@ilfico.com

Via di Monte Giardino 49, Rome

by Public Domain

Sabatini

"Tourist Hotspot"

Since 1958, the Sabatini brothers have been offering local cuisine and seafood fare in their wonderful Sabatini restaurant, facing the church in the Piazza Santa Maria area. A popular tourist spot, this restaurant is always throbbing with various people. Equipped with a brimming selection of Tuscan wines and mouth-watering food, the place is abuzz with infectious energy. Enjoy the lovely food, great company in this beautiful city.

+39 06 581 8307

www.ristorantisabatini.it/

sabatini@ristorantisabatini.com

Vicolo Santa Maria in Trastevere 23, Rome

by Pixzolo Photography on Unsplash

Trattoria Lilli

"Ideal For Groups"

Trattoria Lilli is a modern restaurant with a pleasant, lively atmosphere where you can spend an evening with friends. The atmosphere is comfortable and festive with a holiday feel thanks to the umbrellas protecting the tables outside from the summer sun. Smells of home-made dishes drift from the kitchen - Tagliolini with cheese and pepper, and the delicious smoked Bucatini all'amatriciana, which everyone loves. Main courses include spring rolls with beans, ideal in winter, and meat with seasonal vegetables. In summer, you can order an excellent fried dish of peppers and potatoes. There is a selection of both foreign and Italian wines.

+39 06 686 1916

www.trattorialilli.it/

cerdin175@hotmail.it

Via Tor di Nona 23, Rome

by thefork.com

Trattoria da Luigi

"A Taste of Rome"

With a menu filled with local delicacies, Trattoria da Luigi guarantees you a taste of Rome. There is ample indoor seating, but dining al fresco and observing the sights and sounds of the city has a different charm. You can gorge on mouthwatering dishes like boneless veal with mushrooms, roast chicken with potatoes, penne alla vodka and more. The wine selection is noteworthy, and you can find the perfect partner for your meal. Desserts like homemade tiramisu and dark chocolate tartufo end the meal perfectly.

+39 06 686 5946

www.trattoriada luigi.com/

gerardo@trattoriada luigi.com

Piazza Sforza Cesarini 23, Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, Rome

Da Gildo

"Sophisticated Fun"

Da Gildo is a fancy restaurant in the district of Trastevere. The restaurant is very elegant and the atmosphere is very pleasant. Furthermore, their menu offers a variety of dishes and appetizers, and Da Gildo's wine list has a great selection. Gorge on local fares churned out by their culinary team, as their wines offer the perfect accompaniment. Reservations are preferred, and all major credit cards accepted.

+39 06 580 0733

✉ dagildointrastevere@gmail.com

📍 Via della Scala 31, Rome

Da Lucia

"Roman in Trastevere Back Alley"

Da Lucia is a family-run trattoria located in a back alley in Trastevere. Open since 1938, it is included in the Municipality's list of historical restaurants and shops in Rome. Their menu features all the dishes of Roman culinary tradition. The simplest are also the best ones: spaghetti cacio e pepe with pecorino cheese and black pepper or amatriciana are among the favorite pasta dishes. Veal involtini, tender stuffed squids, or rabbit cacciatora-style are interesting main courses. In good weather, tables are available in the small cobbled street out front. Call ahead for more information, or check out the website.

📷 by "Eilena McGuinness on Unsplash" on Unsplash

+39 06 580 3601

🌐 www.trattoriadalucia.com/

📍 Vicolo del Mattonato 2b, Rome

Trattoria Morgana

"Traditionally Roman"

A lengthy list of Roman delicacies just waiting to be devoured awaits you at Trattoria Morgana, making it highly unlikely that you will go away dissatisfied. Roman classics, dishes that are made in every Roman household, are on offer here. Seafood salad, bruschetta with tomatoes, Italian cold cuts and buffalo mozzarella are just the beginning of a great meal, and many mouthwatering preparations follow. You can gorge on spaghetti alla carbonara, filet with green peppercorn sauce and more. Snails are the house specialty, and must be tried.

📷 by Einladung_zum_Essen

+39 06 487 3122

🌐 www.trattoriamorgana.com/

✉ info@trattoriamorgana.com

📍 Via Mecenate 19-21, Rome

Dal Bolognese

"Dining in Piazza del Popolo"

This restaurant looks out onto one of Rome's most beautiful piazzas, in a comfortable, yet refined setting. This restaurant is a local hangout for artists, politicians, journalists and businessmen. It looks onto the piazza del Popolo, and has one room, which resembles a beautiful bourgeois drawing room, and another room for smokers. You will receive a warm reception and efficient service in both. Everything here is absolutely delicious; however, the pasta dishes particularly stand out thanks to their Emilian tradition. Classic dishes are made according to the Bolognese tradition, and the pièce de résistance is Bollito Misto; also excellent is the Fritto alla Bolognese with vegetables, meat, crema dolce and apple. There are fish dishes and homemade pasta recipes.

📷 by Travis Yewell on Unsplash

+39 06 322 2799

🌐 roma.dalbolognese.it/

✉ roma@dalbolognese.it

📍 Piazza del Popolo 1-2, Rome

by joshuemd

Dino Express

"Traditional Home-Style Preparations"

Located in the neighborhood of Prati, this little restaurant serves some of the traditionally prepared Italian delicacies, that is definitely worth trying. The ambiance is lively and great for family lunches. The simple dishes on the menu consists of the signature ossobuco, saltimboocca al timone, vegetable soup, prosciutto e melone, pasta e ceci and polpette, carpaccio di carne con rughetta, lasagne and much more. Closed on Sundays, this place is open for lunch Mondays to Saturdays. Do not worry in case you forgot to withdraw cash, as they offer a cash machine within the restaurant for your convenience. Reservations would be quite ideal, unless you have enough time to wait for your turn. Call ahead for more details.

+39 06 6361 0305

Via Tacito 80, Rome

by "Katrin Morenz"

Da Bucatino

"Typically Roman"

A restaurant that celebrates every aspect of Roman cuisine, Da Bucatino has many mouthwatering dishes for you to enjoy. The freshest produce is made use of to create a menu of delicious preparations, right from the appetizers to the desserts. When here, you absolutely must try creations like bucatini all'amatriciana, coniglio alla cacciatore (hunter-style rabbit) and coda alla vaccinara (oxtail stew). Desserts like tiramisù end the meal perfectly. The restaurant is closed on Mondays.

+39 06 574 6886

www.bucatino.com/

info@bucatino.com

Via Luca della Robbia 84/86, Rome

by pixel2013

Trattoria Perilli

"Still the Same"

Perilli is a typically roman tavern with a charming decor that incorporates ancient Roman murals and high ceilings. The food is as tasty with the same authentic flavors as it was since the place began. Experiment with 'pagliata' or a dish made with calf intestines if you think you can stomach it. This place is frequented by locals and tourists alike.

+39 06 575 5100

Via Marmorata 39, Rome

by sharonang

Felice a Testaccio

"Delicious Roman Fare"

The restaurant was notorious due to its grumpy old owner who used to reserve all the tables and only let in his regular patrons and the few he liked. Now it has been transformed into a trendy and friendly restaurant though it has remained faithful to its traditional Roman cuisine, for which it was known as well. Must try's are the tonnarelli cacio e pepe, abbacchio al forno con patate and tiramisù al bicchiere, which is served in a glass. They also have a good selection of Italian wines to go with your meal.

+39 06 574 6800

www.feliceatestaccio.it/

info@feliceatestaccio.com

Via Mastro Giorgio 29, Rome

by joshuemd

Cucina Romana da Dino

"Traditional Italian Pizzas"

This cozy little Italian restaurant is best for intimate dining and pizzas. The food served here is much appreciated and some of the dishes you may want to try are matriciana spaghetti, lasagnas, pastas, pizza napoletana, margarita pizza, pizza capricciosa, pizza all'Ortolana and lots more. A good wine collection is offered to accompany with your meals. A reasonable place, their service is warm and friendly too. For reservations and more information, call ahead.

+39 06 491 2425

Via dei Mille 10, Rome

by baklava

Flavio al Velavevodetto

"Charming Cottage Tavern"

In a quaint neighborhood, the Flavio al Velavevodetto is located in a tiny cottage surrounded by beautiful flowers and creepers. It offers a pristine ambiance to experiment with delectable Roman cuisine. A meal starts with appetizing pastas. The main course includes classic fare like succulent rabbit, lamb, veal and specialities like swordfish and ravioli. A meal can be finished off with a tiramisu or a fondant.

+39 06 574 4194

www.ristorantevelavevode.to.it/ tuttinoisrl@virgilio.it

Via di Monte Testaccio 97, Rome

by TheFork

Il Focolare

"Quaint Italian Diner"

Il Focolare restaurant started off as a small neighborhood diner way back in 1944. Now a family business, the restaurant has stood the test of time and the ravages of war to become a popular eatery among locals and tourists alike. The food served here is home-style Italian with a heavy bias on delicious and hearty pasta dishes. Their Sliced Beef with Mushrooms and Mixed Grilled Meat with Baked Potatoes come highly recommended. With pretty lamps casting a dim light, an impressive marble fireplace and minimal but tasteful decor, the place has a cozy but classy vibe suited to family meals and dates alike.

+39 06 581 8395

www.ilfocolaredal1945.it/ robbyfocolare@yahoo.it

Via Gabriele Rossetti 40, Rome

by Eiliv-Sonas Aceron on Unsplash

Checchino dal 1887

"Country Cooking At Its Finest!"

The restaurant has long been established in Rome and is now run by Ninetta Mariani with her sons Francesco and Elio. The restaurant is very beautiful, with two rooms for smokers and one for non-smokers. The decor is very attractive and the service attentive and efficient. The typical Roman country cooking is recreated to be fit for a king. The menu is long and varied with traditional dishes, including Rigatoni with Pajata, sweetbreads, tripe, and offal with artichokes. The trolley provides a wide choice of local cheeses that are not often found in the shops. There is also a fantastic dessert menu, with standouts such as spuma di ricotta with cocoa powder or cinnamon. The wine-list has both Italian and foreign wines. Call ahead for reservations.

+39 06 574 6318

www.checcchino-dal-1887.com checcchino_roma@tin.it

Via di Monte Testaccio 30, Rome

by RitaE

Ristorante Il Cortile

"Delicious Roman Fare!"

If you want to sample Rome's local cuisine, few eateries would be able to satisfy you like Ristorante Il Cortile. The menu at this restaurant features a vast assortment of mouthwatering delicacies, and there is a great wine list to boot. Starting with appetizers like swordfish and salmon carpaccio, you can move on to a meal comprising spaghetti tonno fresco e capperi (spaghetti with fresh tuna and capers), baccalà fritto con zucchini (fried cod with zucchini) and more. Desserts like vanilla cream with berries end the meal perfectly.

+39 06 580 3433

www.ilcortiledal1929.com/ info@ilcortile.it

Via Alberto Mario 26, Rome

by congerdesign

+39 06 581 2792

La Tavernaccia

"Roman Fare That's More Than Fair"

This Roman yummy delights with traditional dishes, pizzas and a nice wine selection. Whether it's their artichokes alla romana or slices of prosciutto for starters, or the suckling lamb dish to fill you up, La Tavernaccia has got you covered. Be sure to check out the cassata siciliana, a Southern Italian specialty.

latavernaccia@virgilio.it

Via Giovanni di Castel Bolognese 63, Rome

by pixel2013

Tram Tram

"The Tastiest Commute In Rome"

Situated in Rome's University area, one of its oldest and most culturally 'uncompromised' zones, Tram Tram is a unique restaurant that charms a large crowd of locals. The name Tram Tram is not only a reflection of the steady stream of trams that pass each day, but also an appropriate title for the interior décor. The restaurant showcases a wide variety of artifacts Rome's famous old trams. The menu combines typical Roman, Sicilian and Puglian dishes. Signora di Vittorio will welcome you warmly and give you her personal recommendations (all in Italian of course). And if fish is your dish then you won't be disappointed with their eggplant or porcini fish courses. Another trademark dish that will leave your tongue begging for more is the "Pappardella Tram Tram", a pasta dish with lamb and sweet peppers. It is nearly always rush hour here so reservations are strongly suggested.

+39 06 49 0416

www.tramtram.it/ info@tramtram.it

Via dei Reti 46, Rome

by TheFork

+39 06 788 0494

L'Archeologia

"Local Delicacies"

Established in 1890, L'Archeologia is done up in a beautiful blend of old and new. It's a pleasure, not only for the palate, but also for the eyes. Local specialties abound; check out the Tagliata di Manzo or the Antipasta dell'Antica Posta. For a sweet, you may not be able to say no to the Crema Catalana. This restaurant also makes a great venue for private events.

www.larcheologia.it/ info@larcheologia.it

Via Appia Antica 139, Rome

Il Buchetto

"Worth the Wait"

This local pizzeria is ever-bustling with loyal customers. The feel is casual and comfortable, with lots of tables and a little background music. The staff is alert and more than willing to help customers decide on one of the thirty varieties of pizza, as well as Calzoni, Bruschette and Crostini. The traditional desserts baked in the wood oven are amazing.

by petrovhey

+39 06 320 1707

Via Flaminia 119, Rome

Ristorante Il Fungo Quattordicesimo Piano

"Quiet Times With Oneself"

If you are looking forward to dine at a place where you can relax in the quiet atmosphere and be with yourself, Ristorante Il Fungo Quattordicesimo Piano is the ideal place to be at. The spectacular view of the city will simply rejuvenate your senses. Gorge on the delicious Italian cuisine that is simply irresistible, while they also change and update their menu every season with new inspirations. Hire this beautiful venue for your most special occasions and cherish the happy moments. To know more about their catering services and other details, check out their website or call ahead.

by sharonang

+39 06 591 1980

www.ristoranteilfungo.it/index.php?lang=it

Piazza Pakistan 1/A, Rome

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com