

"Best Pizza in Rome"

Created by: Cityseeker

 24 Locations Bookmarked

 by nosha

Pizza Zaza

"Natural Born Pizza"

Just in between the Pantheon and Piazza Navona, Zaza serves many kinds of pizzas all strictly made with organic and carefully selected ingredients and no animal fats. It seems that their crunchy secret is the natural yeast left to rise for long hours. The menu also includes stuffed pizza, rosemary flatbread and fried croquettes. They bake both white and red pizzas that range from the classical cherry tomato and mozzarella to the tasty but unusual zucchini, shrimp and provolone pizza. Pizzas are sold also by the slice, and the parlor offers free delivery service too. In good weather, take a seat at the few tables out front and enjoy the view of the busy square.

 +39 06 6880 1357

 ifix-iphone.com/

 info@pizzazaza.com

 Piazza Sant'Eustachio 49, Rome

 by "American Heritage Chocolate on Unsplash" on Unsplash

Antico Forno Roscioli

"Bakery and Pizzeria"

Antico Forno Roscioli is a renowned bakery and pizzeria in Rome. Established in 1972, this historic establishment has been serving up delicious baked goods and traditional Roman pizza. The sister restaurant is just down the lane, but this little eatery is a perfect lunchtime place serving exceptional pizzas, pastas, vegetable dishes and desserts. The staff is friendly and courteous. Gluten-free and kosher breads are also offered, and you can pick up a lunch bag to go if it gets too crowded.

 +39 06 686 4045

 www.anticofornoroscioli.it info@anticofornoroscioli.com

 Via dei Chiavari 34, Rome

 by Eaters Collective on Unsplash

 +39 06 488 2784

Gioia Mia Pisciapiano

"Pizze in the Centro Storico"

Do not be put off by the noise in this central and very pleasant pizzeria. There are classic pizzas and traditional Roman cuisine such as Pasta Cacio e Pepe or the delicious Pasta al Amatriciana and a limited choice of side vegetables lightly cooked with a little hot pepper. The restaurant has a good selection of wines to accompany your meal.

 Via degli Avignonesi 34, Rome

Antica Pizzeria Est Est Est

"Long-Established Roman Pizzeria"

Antica Pizzeria Est Est Est is a renowned pizzeria known for serving delicious and authentic Neapolitan-style pizza. Situated in the historic city center, Antica Pizzeria Est Est Est has been delighting locals and visitors alike for decades with its mouthwatering pizzas and welcoming atmosphere. The pizzeria's menu features a variety of classic and creative pizza options, all made with fresh, high-quality ingredients and baked to perfection in a wood-fired oven. Guests can choose from an array of toppings, including traditional favorites like margherita and marinara, as well as specialty pizzas featuring unique combinations of flavors and ingredients.

+39 06 488 1107

via Genova 32, Rome

by joshuemd

La Montecarlo

"Crowded, But Always Fast Service"

Popular pizzeria for foreigners and locals alike. Swift, courteous service. There are open-air tables for dining during the summer months. The pizzas, canapés, fried foods and bruschette (toast with various toppings) are all excellent. Pizzas are generally thin crusted and crunchy (per Roman tradition), and the numerous other fried foods are always a joy. There are also some first and second course dishes on the menu, that are typically Italian, like risotto and spaghetti. The desserts are home-made.

+39 06 686 1877

www.lamontecarlo.it/

info@lamontecarlo.it

Vicolo Savelli 13, Rome

by Riedelmeier

Baffetto

"Famous Roman Pizzeria"

Baffetto is a historic Roman pizzeria which, over the years, has stood out because of its 'family feel' and of course, for the wide variety of delicious pizzas offered daily. The pizzeria is known for its thin-crust pizzas, cooked to perfection in a wood-fired oven and topped with high-quality ingredients sourced from local producers. You will also find mouth-watering bruschetta, various salads, mushrooms, beans, and home-made desserts. From classic Margherita and Marinara pizzas to creative combinations featuring fresh vegetables, savory meats, and flavorful cheeses, Baffetto offers a wide variety of options to satisfy every craving.

+39 06 686 1617

www.pizzeriabaffetto.it

Via del Governo Vecchio 114, Rome

by sharonang

Ai Marmi

"Popular Pizzeria in Trastevere"

Ai Marmi, also known as Pizzeria Ai Marmi, is a beloved pizzeria located in the Trastevere neighborhood. Popular among locals and tourists alike, the pizzeria exudes a lively, friendly atmosphere. The excellent pizzas can be accompanied by rice and croquettes, fillets of dry salted cod, pumpkin flowers, or beans dressed in different ways. An extensive list of beer and wine is available to accompany your cheesy pizzas. Whether you're stopping in for a quick bite or lingering over a meal with friends, Ai Marmi promises a memorable dining experience that celebrates the rich culinary tradition of Rome.

+39 06 580 0919

Viale di Trastevere 53, Rome

by TheFork

Restaurant La Gattabuia

"Roman Dishes & Red Wines!"

Located in the neighborhood of Trastevere, Restaurant La Gattabuia is one great place for delicious steaks and pizzas. The low lit and soft ambiance sure proves for a relaxed meal. The authentic Italian and Roman delicacies like the carbonara, amatriciana, gnocchi, fried and grilled vegetables and the grilled items such as the fillets, steaks and roasts are much appreciated here. The pizzas prepared slowly in their special wood stove cannot be missed here. Complement your meals and choose from a vast variety of 80 red wines from Lazio. Be sure to end the evening with the perfect dessert from their menu. Call ahead to inquire more on hosting your private events here.

+39 06 58 4813

info@lagattabuia.it

Via Del Porto 1, Rome

Dar Poeta

"Surprise Pizza"

Situated in the heart of Trastevere, this pizzeria is run by a group of friends who are constantly dreaming up ideas for new and extravagant pizzas. When it comes to taste, the traditional pizzas may just have the edge on the more creative ones. The calzone (folded pizza) filled with marscapone or ricotta and nutella is not to be missed. Savor the authentic taste of pizzas slowly cooked in a wood oven. The home-made desserts are offer a perfect ending to your pizza fest.

+39 06 588 0516

www.darpoeta.com/en/dar-poeta-en/

marco@darpoeta.com

Vicolo del Bologna 45/46, Rome

by Luca Conti

La Gallina Bianca

"Country & Neapolitan Style"

This is a brightly colored country-style pizzeria with a large room and one smaller, quieter room. The service is fast and efficient, and the pizza is excellent, in Neapolitan style - high and soft. The fried seafood, pagnottielli, bruschetta, vegetable dishes and salads are all tasty as are the pastas and grilled dishes. The desserts are made on the premises, they cannot be missed! For reservations and more information, call ahead.

+39 06 474 3777

lagallinbiancaroma.it/

f.gallina@mclink.it

Via A. Rosmini 5/11, Rome

by Riedelmeier

Li Rioni

"For the Night Pizza Cravings"

Traditional Italian pizzas, fresh out of the wooden oven, is what awaits you as you step in through the doors of Li Rioni for a satisfying dinner. Thin crust covered with cheese and topped with meat and veggies make it a wonderful meal. A range of wines are offered to complement the food. The patio is a great place to enjoy hot pizzas in the cool breeze while ensconced in Rome's historical architecture. This place is open till around 12a, making it a perfect place to satisfy those midnight hunger pangs with delicious cheesy pizzas.

+39 06 7045 0605

Via dei Santissimi Quattro Coronati 24, Rome

by Nicolás Perondi on Unsplash

Pizza Ré

"Open Over 100 Years"

This pizzeria has been open for over 100 years and is one of the most Neapolitan pizzerias in Rome, popular with both locals and tourists. Right near the Piazza del Popolo, it is easy to get to and is in a pleasant and appealing part of the city. The thick pizzas, rolled out by hand and baked in the wood-fired oven, are excellent. The Neapolitan appetizers, various fried foods and desserts are all very good, as are the wines from the Campania region.

+39 06 321 1468

www.pizzare.it/

Via di Ripetta 14, Rome

by Aurélien Lemasson-Théobald on Unsplash

Da Remo

"Pizzas Exactly the Way Romans Do"

A simple small, Roman trattoria with quick service and hence a constant queue at the door. But the customers are quick to praise the quality and the price. The Roman pizzas are excellent, as are the classical fried dishes. The much-raved about Margerita has fans all over and is a definite must-try. Beer is served as are sweets and gelato. Perfect for late-night dining after endless sightseeing or a romantic Italian flick.

+39 06 574 6270

Piazza di Santa Maria Liberatrice 44, Rome

by Riedelmeier

Al Forno della Soffitta

"True Neapolitan Delight"

Al Forno della Soffitta is a delightful pizzeria, known for its rich and indulgent pizzas. Lovers of true pizza Napoletana, raised with a chewy crust, line up to try Stefano's pizzas. The pizzas, served on wooden chopping boards and baked to perfect in a wood-fired oven, are original and creative. Specialty pizzas include Amatriciana, Luglio, and Funghi Porcini. The fried mixed fish dishes and focaccias are also worth trying. Dessert options include delectable preparations such as Torta Caprese, Delizia al limone, and Selezione Partenopea.

+39 06 4201 1164

www.alfornodellasoffitta.it / direzione.soffitta@gmail.com

Via Piave 62/64, Rome

by Sarang Pande on Unsplash
+39 06 445 3866

Formula 1

"Fast & Furious!"

San Lorenzo's historic pizzeria, recently renovated, has got seriously swift service. The atmosphere is fun - bold, red, like a Ferrari. Often frequented by local university students. Roman pizzas - bianche or rosse (red or white sauce base) - as well as many side dishes and appetizers made just the way you like them.

Via degli Equi 13, Rome

L'isola della Pizza

"Pizza & Game"

A great pizzeria run for more than ten years by Vito, a hunter from Amatrice. Pizza alla romana (thin and crispy crust) on offer in addition to variety of starters. During hunting season you can also find delicious game and tasty grilled meats. Home-made desserts. Pale Carlsberg on draft, great wine selection with outdoor dining in summer.

by Mink Mingle on Unsplash

+39 06 884 5451

Gaudi

"Cuisine from Sorrento"

Pizza al metrò (by the meter) has made Gaudi famous, which now also specializes in dishes from Sorrento. There are more than thirty varieties of Pizza al metrò, and it is the restaurant's pièce de resistance. There are also other dishes from the region on the menu, such as Torte Rustiche, fried dishes, salads and desserts. There is a wonderful grill on view which is used for preparing meat, cheese and vegetables recipes.

www.pizzeriagaudi.it/

info@pizzeriagaudi.it

Via Ruggero Giovannelli 8/12, Rome

by Riedelmeier

+39 06 578 2882

Pizza Luigi

"Small Eatery Serving Exceptional Pizza"

Pizza Luigi has remained a neighborhood fixture for authentic Italian-style pizzas since 1985. The Centro Storico location makes it an ideal destination to stop by for a bite between all the sightseeing and exploring. Atmosphere is casual and service is top-notch, seating is plenty. There are over a 50 varieties of pizzas to choose from; which come with classic, seasonal and gourmet toppings. Catering service is also offered.

www.pizzaluigi.it/

info@pizzaluigi.it

Via Federico Nansen 6/12, Rome

by TheFork

+39 06 4470 2346

ZeroZero100

"Satiating the Palate and Belly"

Nestled in the heart of Tiburtino district, ZeroZero100 is a wonderful place to drop by for a late dinner after your tiring day of touring. The restaurant offers a tantalizing Mediterranean fare. If you are in the mood for a local twist, try out their traditional pizzas. On weekends, visit this restaurant for a delectable brunch with your friends or family. You can gorge on toasts, eggs, bacon, sausage, croissants, and muffins, along with which you can enjoy a drink or a coffee to your heart's content.

00100.biz/

info@zerozero100.it

Via del Verano 27, Via dei Piceni 56, Rome

by Riedelmeier

+39 06 3974 5416

Pizzarium

"Pizza at its Best"

If Anthony Bourdain recommends this restaurant, you know its going to be good! The pizzas are Pizzarium are innovative and creative when it comes to their toppings. the suppli list changes often and is a really good try. This restaurant is mostly for take away and has limited standing space to eat.

Via della Meloria 43, Rome

by pasevichbogdan

+39 06 534 6702

La Gatta Mangiona

"Beer and Pizzas"

La Gatta Mangiona is the perfect way to end a working day. Stop by for some delicious thin-crust pizza. Put that together with a nice chilled beer and you have a simple meal that will be nothing but enjoyable. The restaurant is a simple set up and is perfect for a casual evening with family or friends. Besides a good beer list, the pizzeria also has a good selection of wines.

by joshuemd

Joseph Ristorante

"Italian Goodness!"

If authentic pizza is on your mind Joseph Ristorante is one of the perfect places to be at. With casual atmosphere and warm friendly service, this restaurant is reasonably priced. The Italian menu consists of mouthwatering steaks, pastas, signature pizzas, lasagnas, and everything nice. The desserts are something you wouldn't want to miss after such a wonderful meal. The wine collection is extensive at very good prices. Reservations are recommended, or arrive early to avoid queuing up. For more information on hiring this space for your special events, call ahead.

+39 06 662 3887

www.ristorantejoseph.com/it/

Via Accursio 12, Rome

Mamma Che Pizza

"Homemade Pizza"

A cozy little pizza restaurant on the corner of "pizza" district, you will find a wide range of places to choose from. Menu offers "pizza al taglio" which literally means "pizza by the slice" with a wider variety of tastes. There are tables and a TV, the atmosphere is very relaxed and perfect for a quick lunch. They offer take away, so you can enjoy a slice-full at home.

+39 06 540 4290

www.mammachepizza-roma.com/

info@mammachepizza.net

Via Poggio Ameno 34/40, Rome

by "Stacy Spensley"

El Cubano

"Cuban Meals"

This local restaurant serves great Cuban delicacies. The ambiance at El Cubano is casual and lively for a fun time, whether with colleagues or friends. The staff is very friendly and their service is much appreciated. Try their fried chicken and banana, rice with beans, vegetables, shrimp, ham and eggs, croquettes, salad with avocado and much more. Complement your meals with some of the creative mixes at the bar. For reservations and more information, call ahead.

+39 06 718 0139

Via Siderno 50, Rome

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com