PanDivino

"Chic Cafe"

A small street side café in Rome is the PanDivino. This café is well-known for its fabulous Panini sandwiches, and other classic Italian dishes. This rather unassuming place is hard to find and may easily be lost as you walk searching for it, but once you find it, you ought to try as much as you can on the menu. Food is delicious, reasonably priced and the dishes all exude an Italian flavor that is just hard to ignore.

Hopificio

"Good Food & Drinks Spot"

Hopificio, the great Italian bar where beer and food come together to create an amazing combo. The restaurant has long been a local favorite and there are so many varieties on the menu that entice you to try everything. They have Italian versions of dumplings, pasta, pizza, sandwich, and some great gourmet dishes as well. But the best part is the variety in beer which where they have some superb local as well as international brands. Besides the Italian delights, the restaurant offers a variety of tapas dishes that can be best paired with the extensive beverage list offered here.
