

"Best Quick Bites in Rome"

Created by: Cityseeker

 7 Locations Bookmarked

Caffè Capitolino

"Cafe at the Museum"

Take a break from all the sightseeing and stop by Caffè Capitolino to enjoy a light bite and drink. The fare is standard and simple, but what makes this cafe special is its location that offers patrons panoramic views of the capital. Although it can't be easily spotted, this rooftop cafe is not that hard to find if you just take the street entrance to the Palazzo Caffarelli at Piazza del Campidoglio.

 by "Nathan Dumlaio on Unsplash" on Unsplash

 +39 06 6919 0564

 www.museicapitolini.org/en/oltre_il_museo/caffetteria

 Via di Villa Caffarelli, Musei Capitolini, Piazza del Campidoglio, Rome

La Bottega del Caffè

"For the Laid-Back Ambiance"

If all the endless sightseeing has left you famished then stop by this little cafe in Centro Storico for a simple yet satisfying meal. And you don't have to venture away from Roman Forum to get here, just walk down Via della Madonna dei Monti and spot the shaded patio with the most greenery. From pizzas and salami to traditionally prepared pastas, the menu has everything. And they also have a good choice of drinks that perfectly complement the Roman delicacies.

 by auntmasako

 +39 06 474 1578

 Piazza Madonna dei Monti 5, Rome

Caffè Bohémien

"Cafe, Piano, Art & Drinks!"

One of the most appreciated places in the neighborhood of Monti, Caffè Bohémien can be visited for fun times as well as for quiet moments or reading your favorite book. The small menu consists of contemporary pastas, soups and other dishes for quick bits. They also offer a small cocktail, wines and whiskey collection to enjoy in the company of the grand piano that can be played by anyone. Their space can also be used by photographers, painters and artists for exhibiting their work for the arty patrons. So whether a casual hangout or an entertaining evening dinner, this place is sure a must visit! Reservations on the weekends is a must. Check out the website or call ahead for more information.

 by DesignNPrint

 +39 06 8901 0626

 margherita-cirillo@libero.it

 Via degli Zingari 36, Rome

Birreria Trilussa

"Mingle & Bingle"

Very famous among locals, Birreria Trilussa is packed almost all nights of the week. The place is quaint and the visitors usually stand next to the bar with their drinks. The old brewery is quite famous and is much appreciated. Spread over four rooms, and consisting of about 300 seats totally, they offer outdoor seating as well. The menu offers a variety of drinks and some snacks, salads and sandwiches. The menu also consists of a wide range of delicious items from 60 types of pastas and 50 kinds of pizzas. It's a great place to have a drink and mingle. You may want to celebrate small private events and gatherings as well. Call ahead for more information.

+39 0 6581 9067

Via Benedetta 19, Rome

by Jeff Siepman on Unsplash

Trimani II Wine Bar

"Fine Selection of Wine"

This is one of Rome's best-stocked wine bars. Also a wine shop, the interior is elegant and the courteous, professional service makes it a pleasant spot to unwind. There is a huge assortment of wines and a fine choice of food, including assortments of cheese served best with wine, soups and snacks. The venue is always abuzz with activity with a lot of events taking place like wine tastings and food courses. Always ready with something to snack on, Trimani II Wine Bar is a welcome respite for locals and travelers alike.

+39 06 446 9630

www.trimani.com

ilwinebar@trimani.com

Via Cernaia 37b, Rome

by "Nathan Dumlao on Unsplash" on Unsplash

Andreotti

"Pastries and More"

Andreotti is a little shop with big things to offer! For those of you with a sweet tooth get ready for a treat. The desserts here are some of the best you will find in the city and have are not too expensive either. Besides desserts, Andreotti also serves delicious pizzas and sandwiches, and is great for a quick bite. Open through the week, you can drop in for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

+39 06 575 0773

www.andreottiroma.it/

info@andreottiroma.com

Via Ostiense 54/56, Rome

by Vinotecarium

Momart Cafe

"Happy Hours, Happy Times!"

Momart Cafe is a classy and hip cafe that attracts the posh crowd. The ambiance is dim lit, elegant and lively. The huge variety of the buffet menu will leave you contemplating on what to choose. For hanging out here in the evenings, they also offer delicious quick bites and a special happy hour menu. They offer a very extensive collection of cocktails, wines and spirits that you can accompany with your drinks. Organize some of your most special occasions and they will customize the buffet menu for you. For reservations and more information, call ahead.

+39 06 8639 1656

www.momartcafe.it/

info@momartcafe.it

Viale XXI Aprile 19, Rome

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com