

"Best Movie Theaters in Rome"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 13 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by "M. Pratter" ©

Sala Trevi

"A Cinema You Can't Miss!"

Located within the Cineteca Nazionale, Sala Trevi is an 100 seater posh cinema that is one of the neighborhood favorites. Named in memory of Alberto Sordi, he is one of the missed veterans in the Italian circles. The comfortable and spacious seating with the company of popcorn and refreshments brings the perfect movie experience. They also offer deals to purchase ten tickets for 30 euros only. Mondays closed. Call ahead for more information.

📞 +39 06 7229 4301

📍 Vicolo del Puttarello 25, Cineteca Nazionale, Rome

📷 by sunshinecity ©

Cinema Farnese

"Renovated Cinema in Centro Storico"

This cinema was completely renovated resulting in a dramatic surge in its popularity. It is possible to organize morning projections for schools, so do contact for more details. There are 290 seats in the air-conditioned auditorium. The shows selected are popular and find the place occupied at most of the times. Visit the website for reservations and movie schedules.

📞 +39 06 686 4395

🌐 us15.campaign-archive.com/?e=%5BUNIQID%5D&u=f239995624e8342faf405136b&id=74bd60a6bb ✉ info@cinemafarnese.it

📍 Piazza Campo de' Fiori 56, Rome

📷 by "Do u remember" ©

📞 +39 06 474 1515

Cinema Quattro Fontane

"Great Movies"

If you want to be the most splendid experience while watching your favorite movies. Cinema Quattro Fontane is the place to go to watch the latest blockbuster movie. The comfortable seating accompanied by popcorns, candies and refreshments is just the ideal thing to do. Call ahead for more information on ticket bookings and movie schedules.

📍 Via Quattro Fontane 23, Rome

📷 by Lloyd Dirks on Unsplash ©

📞 +39 06 4201 0392

Barberini

"Variety & Comfort"

Located in the neighborhood of Centro Storico, this multi-screen cinema is quite a favorite. A comfortable, recently renovated cinema with large screens and Dolby Digital; a cinema that set the trend for the multiplexes in Rome. It shows a wide variety of films, from popular romantic comedies and films by famous directors, to action films. Visit the website for movie timings, ticket reservations or other details.

🌐 multisala.barberini.18tickets.it/ ✉ info@multisalabarberini.it

📍 Piazza Barberini 24/26, Rome

by Kilyan Sockalingum on Unsplash

Piazza della Repubblica 43-45, Rome

Space Cinema Moderno

"Warner Brothers Cinema"

Moderno, part of the Warner Village Cinemas chain is proving to be very popular throughout the city. There are six screens, all with air-conditioning, stadium seating, digital surround-sound, late shows and two bars with the usual offerings. Kids Club is available on Sunday mornings with the first screening just for children. Entrance is prohibited once the show has started. Call ahead for more details.

by "Alex Litvin on Unsplash" on Unsplash

+39 06 3600 4988

www.ferrerocinemas.com/generic/landing.php

infoadriano@cecchigori.com

Piazza Cavour 22, Rome

Adriano

"Ultra-Modern Cinema"

This cinema opened on the site of what was Rome's oldest theater. The new multiscreen cinema has nine auditoriums, the largest of which boasts 512 seats; the smallest, a cozy 95-seater. There are two American-style bars, and a waiting room equipped with video games. Their computerized telephonic booking service makes ticket purchasing easier than ever; and of course the whole place features the latest and greatest in sound and vision systems.

by Lalupa

+39 06 42 3601 (Venue)

www.casadelcinema.it

c.lanfranchi@zetema.it

Largo Marcello Mastroianni 1, Rome

Casa del Cinema

"Movie Theater at Villa Borghese"

Situated in the heart of Villa Borghese Park, Casa del Cinema is a movie theater playing host to indoor as well as outdoor movie screenings throughout the year. The three indoor theater rooms, as well as the spacious outdoor lawn, is equipped with state-of-the-art movie projections and sound equipment. Apart from these, Casa del Cinema is also equipped with a library featuring books on cinema and an extensive DVD collection. Prominent film festivals are organized at this venue, giving small and independent filmmakers from across the globe recognition and appreciation. Apart from cinema screenings, Casa del Cinema plays host to wide range of private and corporate events on a regular basis.

by "Augusto Oazi on Unsplash" on Unsplash

+39 06 855 3485

www.cinemadeipiccoli.it/info.htm

info@cinemadeipiccoli.it

Viale della Pineta 15, Rome

Cinema dei Piccoli

"More Than Just Cartoons"

This 1934 cinema was originally known as the Mickey Mouse Cinema, catering to the little tots as the audience. It has recently been restored with funds from the Department of Entertainment. Every afternoon, the cinema shows children's films, especially cartoons. In the evening there are films from the Italian Film Archive or original-language films on their first-release. This cinema features in The Guinness Book of World Records as the smallest cinema in the world for the year 2005.

Cinema Lux

"The Latest & Greatest!"

One of the most sought after cinemas in Nomentana, Cinema Lux is a modern multiplex built in 1997 on the site of a previous cinema with Dolby and THX systems, excellent vision and the latest and most popular films. The comfortable and relaxed atmosphere of each theater make it a special experience. Seats can be booked over the phone and numbered seats are allocated when you buy the ticket. Visit the website or call ahead for more details.

+39 06 3629 8171

www.cinemadiroma.com/

Via Massaciuccoli 39, Rome

Odeon Multiscreen

"The Latest Releases from the USA"

This one-of-a-kind multiplex has an excellent audio system, comfortable seats and brilliant projection equipment. It principally screens American blockbusters, but other movies also play. Seats can be booked over the phone. A computer allocates the best seats first.

by Felix Moonseram on +39 06 8639 1361

www.cinemadiroma.it/programmazione-multisala-odeon

info@odeonroma.it

Piazza di Stefano Jacini 22, Rome

Stardust Village

"Movie Mania!"

If you are looking forward for a unique movie experience, Stardust Village is exactly where you should be. The comfortable and spacious seating makes it relaxing and a fun time at the movies. The cinema also comprises of a pub, bar, restaurant and pizzeria, so you don't have to go out of your way for meals. The numerous screens also offer a wide variety of films to choose from. For bookings, schedules and more information, visit the website or call ahead.

by ToastyKen

+39 0652 24 4119

www.stardustvillage.it/

Via di Decima 72, Rome

Cinema The Space Parco De' Medici

"Non-Stop Movies, 18 Screens"

This American-style cinema features 18 auditoriums and many large open spaces. Near the cinema entrance there is a pizzeria, a sandwich bar and a restaurant offering American food for before and after the film. You can buy gelato, popcorn and canned drinks in the foyer. The generously proportioned auditoriums have extra-large screens. Seats are allocated when you buy your tickets. Ticket prices vary and they offer discount pricing on Wednesdays. For bookings and movie schedules, call ahead.

by dbreen

+39 06 89 2111

Viale Salvatore Rebecchini 3, Rome

Jolly Multisala

"Four-Screen Movie Theatre"

This cinema has adopted the multiscreen format and equipped all of its auditoriums with digital Dolby sound. The cinema also has its own bar. These improvements have undoubtedly resulted in larger audience figures. There are 788 seats which are divided between the four auditoriums. All of the rooms are air conditioned, making a visit to the cinema in the summer more pleasant. The cinema does not allow people to enter the auditorium once the main film has started. It is possible to organize cinematographic projections for schools in the mornings.

+39 06 4423 2190

Via Giano della Bella 40274, Rome

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com

TERMS & CONDITIONS | PRIVACY POLICY | API | CONTACT US | Copyright (C) 2024 CITYSEEKER