UPIM

"A Massive Convenience Store"

This is a branch of one of the first chains of large Italian department stores, offering a pleasant interior and a wide choice of goods. There is clothing for all the family at low prices. The choice of accessories and the perfumery items are also wide-ranging. Major displays reflect the time of the year so toys and gifts are clearly apparent towards Christmas, school items are displayed towards September, and swimming costumes can be seen around mid-Spring.
