Barangay B&B

"Chic & Meek"

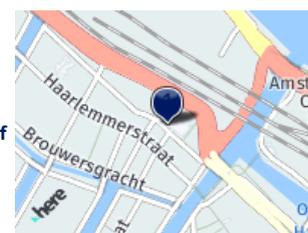

What looks like a typical doll-house that one can find only on the streets of Amsterdam, Barangay B&B is a perfect place for a quick stay. Though the house was built way back in 1777, it opened its doors in 1999. Located in the vicinity of a bustling shopping area, the place is a great tropical getaway. The rooms are elegantly designed. The place has won accolades and awards for its premium standards and hospitable services. It surely stands out for being a soothing escapade in a city that is known to be the wild child of Europe. Visit website for more information on rates and reservations.

Le Quartier Sonang

"French B&B in Amsterdam"

Located in the western part of Amsterdam, Le Quartier Sonang is a quiet and cozy B&B. It offers two rooms, one with a street view while another with a courtyard view. The decor is 1970s French inspired and the rooms are well appointed. Both the rooms are equipped with a special four-layer bed which you can sink into after a hectic day of sight seeing. Check website for availability and more.

Frederik Park House

"Cozy Stay"

A very petite and charming guesthouse situated in the old city is the Frederik Park House. The name says it all since the hotel faces the park and gives a superb view of the same. You can find a lot of recreational and entertaining things to do around this hotel as it is located in the vicinity of bars, shops, restaurants and other famous hangouts. It has four spacious rooms, which are stylishly decorated with comfortable beds and attached bathrooms. Freshly cut flowers welcome you along with the helpful and efficient staff as soon as you enter the guesthouse. It may not be a top notch accommodation, but it certainly is a pleasant place to put up in.
