Steigenberger Grandhotel

"Divine Luxury on Avenue Louise"

Inaugurated in 1993 and having undergone several refurbishments to accentuate its convenient features, the Steigenberger Grandhotel lies on the Avenue Louise, in the heart of Brussels' upscale shopping district. Within walking distance you'll find the impressive Justitiepaleis/Palais de Justice and the Bois de la Cambre, Brussels' wooded park. The hotel is as classy as its environs, so expect the highest quality of service and impeccably sophisticated rooms. There is also a cozy cocktail bar and a large, well-equipped health center, the 'Aspria Avenue Louise,' with an indoor swimming pool. The restaurant, Loui, is outstanding.

Le Dixseptième

"Oasis in the City Center"

This small hotel is a welcome change from the city's larger business lodgings. Housed in a beautifully restored 17th Century mansion, the rooms are named after Belgian painters and are all decorated differently. Most have antique furnishings, lovely wall paintings and a decorative fireplace, as well as exquisite views overlooking the courtyard. They are also all equipped with free Internet connection. The homemade breakfast buffet consists of a wide variety of Belgian and international specialties. And for seeing the city, there is even a limousine for hire.

Hôtel Amigo

"Luxurious Prison"

This quaint hotel just off Grote Markt / Grand Place is thought to be one of the most beautiful ones in town. Where one can now indulge in five-star comfort, inmates were once held behind bars; after all, amigo means prison in the local dialect, a word which was lost in translation by Spanish soldiers who likened it to mean 'friend'. The rooms are magnificent and spacious, perfect for honeymooners and romantic getaways. The service is top-notch, and includes a concierge available 24 hours-a-day to book excursions, multilingual staff and valet parking.

Hôtel Métropole

"Luxurious Retreat"

A friendly smile greets you as you enter this well-known hotel in the old city center. Majestic and built at the turn of the 20th Century, it has magically maintained its original style and ambiance. The marble floors, paneled ceilings and large French Renaissance-style chandeliers located just inside the entrance hall are awe-inspiring. At the end of the hallway is the marbled reception surrounded by crystal chandeliers and mirrors. Guest rooms are sumptuously decorated and fit for a king. The hotel also has its own restaurant and a belle époque café with a heated terrace.

Hôtel Le Plaza

"Spend the Night in a Palace"

This centrally located, five-star hotel was built in 1930 and was well-loved by celebrities Brigitte Bardot, Gary Cooper, Humphrey Bogart, Viviane Leigh and Clark Gable. It closed in 1976, was completely refurbished and then re-opened in 1996 with much success. The glamour and charm of the original establishment hasn't changed. In addition, there are 66 rooms reserved for non-smokers. While dining in the hotel restaurant L'Estérel, be sure to check out the lifelike portraits and landscapes painted on the ceiling.
