Thérèse et Dominique

"Sandwich Spot"

This popular sandwich shop occupies a busy spot on Rue Dejoncker. Thérèse et Dominique offers a great range of freshly-made, hearty sandwiches that make for a great meal no matter what time of the day it is. The seriously stacked sandwiches employ the freshest, locally produced ingredients that render a sublime taste to the food. The prices are just right, the portions are generous and the service is quick; there isn't much to complain about this place.

Maison Antoine

"Best Fries in Belgium"

A traditional Belgian favorite, this fry stand is the oldest in Belgium. Large potatoes are cut into thick strips and fried to golden perfection, then served in a paper cone or even on a baguette with a hot dog. A dozen or so different sauces are the perfect accompaniment. The line is usually quite long for this popular frite stand, but the delicious and simple comfort food is more than worth it. Grab your order from Maison Antoine and head to one of the nearest bistros to enjoy with a nice cold brew and watch as the world passes you by.

La Maison des Crêpes

"Traditional Sweet Pancake"

For over a hundred years, the most delicious pancakes have been baked in this house, in the traditional way, in a cast iron frying-pan and with worthwhile ingredients. Taste the plain crepes with sugar or syrup, always a classic. If you are not in the mood for something sweet, you can also order savory crepes. The decor is classic style with old tables and chairs, but very tasteful. The crepes are always made fresh, so the wonderful smell of this treat is never far away.
